PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION

DURING the last few years great care has been successfully bestowed upon the pointing of the Psalter, so as to ensure an intelligent musical rendering of each clause of the separate verses; but, as far as I am aware, no attempt has been made to exhibit the general structure of the Psalms in such a manner as to suggest the variety of musical treatment which is required in different Psalms and in different parts of the same Psalms for their true interpretation. The present arrangement, which has been made and tested during the last six years of my work at Peterborough, is an endeavour to obtain this object, or at least to indicate what must be aimed at, as far as I can judge, in order that the chanting of the Psalms may contribute in the highest degree to the edifying of the Choir and of the Congregation.

It is evident upon the least reflection that no one uniform method of chanting can be applicable to the whole Psalter. Sometimes the verses are separately complete; sometimes they are arranged in couplets, sometimes in triplets; sometimes they are grouped in unequal but corresponding masses. In most cases the verses consist of two members, but not unfrequently they consist of three or four. If therefore the Psalms are sung antiphonally on one method in single verses, or in pairs of verses, or in half verses, the sense must constantly be sacrificed; and the Music instead of illuminating the thought will fatally obscure it.

vi PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION

Thus, for example, the second Psalm consists of four triplets, which offer remarkable internal correspondences. The teaching of the Psalm is wholly destroyed if the separate unity of these four stanzas is not clearly marked in chanting. There are cases again when the form of the composition is changed in its course. Thus in the nineteenth Psalm there is an abrupt transition from a triple to a double structure. The glory of God in the heavens is portrayed in two stanzas of three verses each: His glory in the Law, and man's consequent prayer, in two stanzas of four verses each. The simplest music which accentuates this form of composition necessarily directs the attention of the hearer to the progress of thought with which it corresponds. If no clear change of rendering meets the change of structure, the idea probably remains hidden. In the twenty-fourth Psalm, to take an illustration of a different kind, the question and answer in vv. 8, 10 ought clearly to be separated. There are also obvious changes of feeling, from confidence to prayer, from prayer to thanksgiving, and even alternations of feeling in the same Psalm, which call for musical recognition.

I have striven therefore, after long and repeated study, to mark the main divisions of the Psalms, and by very brief marginal notes to characterize them. The sharpest divisions are distinguished by a space and a dash (e.g. Ps. ii): divisions more or less clear by a broader or narrower space (e.g. Ps. i and Ps. iii)¹. In making them I have carefully weighed conflicting views. In some cases variations in my own judgment from time to time shew that the conclusion reached is uncertain; but in the majority of Psalms the same outline of structure is recognised by a general consent of commentators, and cannot fail to approve itself to the reader.

PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION vii

It happens sometimes that the conjunctions which have been introduced in the Prayer-book Version mar the sequence of thought (i, 7, 'But the Lord' in place of 'For the Lord'; viii, 3, 'For I will' in place of 'When I'). These inaccuracies have necessarily been disregarded.

One important feature of many Psalms in relation to their musical rendering is the recurrence of 'refrains.' These are sometimes simple (Pss. viii, xlii f, xlix, lvii, lxii, lxvii, lxxx, lxxxvii, xcix, cxv, cxvi, cxxxvi), sometimes double (Pss. xxiv, lix, cvii), and sometimes complicated (cxviii). In all cases they require to be marked in some way so as to bring out plainly the character of the composition. In respect to these again the irregular freedom of the English version injures in several cases the perfect symmetry of the original. Thus in Ps. xlix, 12, the additional clause taken from v. 13 destroys the perfect correspondence with v. 20; in cxvi, 13 (parallel to 16*a*), the words unto the Lord are omitted without authority, and now has the same claim to appear in v. 16 as in v. 13; in xlii, 6, 14, xliii, 5, there are three distinct renderings of one phrase (see also lix, 6, 14; cxviii, 1, 29; 10 ff, &c.).

The Gloria at the close of each Psalm must be regarded as one uniform refrain. In many cases (e.g. Pss. lxxxviii, cxlii f) it ought to be rendered by a distinct chant, that so the voice of praise may be clearly heard after the saddest utterances. Sometimes it can be made in this way to bind together a group of Psalms in a greater unity. Sometimes (as in Ps. cxix) it will mark by its measured recurrence successive breaks in the development of one idea.

In this connexion it may be noticed that the first four of the five Books into which the Hebrew Psalter is divided are closed by a special Doxology (Ps. xli, 13; lxxii, 18 f; lxxxix, 50*b*; cvi, 46). These Doxologies form no part of the Psalms to which they are appended, and should be treated distinctly. As

viii PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION

they stand at present, the Doxology in Ps. xli wholly mars the structure of the Psalm; and that in Ps. lxxxix mars the sense. The last Psalm is a grand Doxology to the whole Psalter.

The 'refrains' and doxologies are printed in italics.

It has not seemed desirable to introduce into the text the enigmatic word Selah. The term indeed appears to mark some change in the original musical accompaniment,—perhaps a passage for the instruments alone,—but its interpretation is most uncertain, and an examination of the passages in which it occurs leads to no positive result as to its general import. It is found at the close of the following verses in the Psalter, according to the numbering of the Prayer Book:

Ps. iii, 2, 4, 8.	Ps. lix, 5, 13.
„ iv, 2, 4.	„ lx, 4.
„ vii, 5.	„ lxi, 4.
„ ix, 16 (Higgaion Selah),	„ lxii, 4, 8.
20.	„ lxvi, 3, 6, 13.
„ xx, 3.	„ lxvii, 1, 4.
„ xxi, 2.	„ lxxiii, 7, 19, 32.
„ xxiv, 6, 10.	„ lxxv, 4.
„ xxxii, 4, 6, 8.	„ lxxvi, 3, 9.
„ xxxix, 6, 12.	„ lxxvii, 3, 9, 15.
„ xliv, 9.	„ lxxxi, 8.
„ xlvi, 3, 7, 11.	„ lxxxii, 2.
„ xlvii, 4.	„ lxxxiii, 8.
„ xlviii, 7.	„ lxxxiv, 4, 8.
„ xlix, 13, 15.	„ lxxxv, 2.
„ l, 6.	„ lxxxvii, 2, 6.
„ lii, 4, 6.	„ lxxxviii, 6, 10.
„ liv, 3.	„ lxxxix, 4, 37, 44, 46.
„ lv, 7 (20 after down).	„ cxi, 3, 5, 8.
„ lvii, 3, 6.	„ cxliii, 6.

In the Psalter of 1549 (printed by H. Powell for E. Whitchurch) the first Sela is printed with the comprehensive note: 'Sela is as much to say 'as always, continually, for euer, forsoith, verely, a 'lifting up of the voice, or to make a pause, and 'earnestly to consydre and to ponder the sentence.' It occurs again xxi, 2; xxxii, 6, 8; xxxix, 6 (mg.) 12; xliv, 9 (mg.); xlvi, 3, 11; xlvii, 4; xlviii, 7; xlix, 13, 15 (mg.) &c. The occurrence, it will be seen, is quite irregular, but it would justify the introduction of the term systematically if it were otherwise desired. It should however be added that I have not observed the term in any other early Psalter (e.g. Grafton 1549, Worcester 1549, Whitchurch 1552 (?), Jugge and Cawood 1560, Barker 1590).

PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION ix

The verse-division of the Psalms in the Prayer Book offers many difficulties in the way of their musical rendering. This differs considerably from the division in the Hebrew text, which is followed in the Bible Version. Where the Prayer Book division seriously obscured the structure of the Psalms, I have ventured to alter it (e.g. i, 3 f; iv, 6 f; v, 9 f; vii, 9 f; xvi, 4 f; xix, 14 f; xlviii, 2; lxiii, 1 f; lxxi, 1, 9; lxxviii, 38 f; xcii, 7; xcvi, 1 f; cxvi, 13, 16; cxxxix, 1).

In other cases I have not thought it well to disturb the existing arrangement (e.g. x, 9 f; xi, 4 f; xv, 5 ff; xviii, 1, 43; xxii, 29 f; xxvii, 6 f, 10 f; xxviii, 14 f; xxx, 6 f, 9 f; xxxi, 2 f; xxxix, 13 f; xlv, 21; xciii, 1 f; cv, 34; cxx, 3), though it might have been better to restore the division of lxiii, 12, and to conform cviii, 8, 9 to the parallel lx, 7, 8.

The version has other faults of this kind which lie beyond any immediate remedy. The translation of Ps. xxix, for example, offers a striking instance of the destruction of that symmetry of composition which it is one of the natural aims of music to interpret. In v. 1 the introduction of the false duplicate rendering bring young rams unto the Lord, destroys the perfect correspondence between the first two and the last two verses, with the fourfold repetition of the sacred Name. Again in v. 3 the rendering, it is the Lord that commandeth the waters, for the voice of the Lord is upon the waters, entirely hides the first enunciation of the subject; and the transference of the third member of the verse (it is the Lord that ruleth the sea) to the beginning of v. 4 is ruinous to the symmetry of both verses (see also xiv, 11, and lii, 7, 8).

x PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION

The Prayer-book Psalter is indeed practically a 'survival' of our first English Bible. It is described in the Preface as following 'the translation of the great English Bible, set forth and used in the time of King Henry the Eighth and Edward the Sixth.' More exactly, it is, I believe, a reproduction, not critically precise, of the last revision of this Bible (Nov. 1540¹). The 'Great Bible' (1539-1540) was a revision by Coverdale of Matthew's Bible (1537), in which the Psalter was taken from Coverdale's own translation of 1535. The merits of this version, which render it 'smoother and more easy to sing,' caused it to be retained in 1662, when the other portions of Scripture used in Divine service were generally directed to be taken from the Revision of King James. These merits belong to all the work of Coverdale, an exquisite rhythm, a graceful freedom of rendering, and an endeavour to represent the spirit as well as the letter of the original. But at the same time the translation, which was very powerfully influenced by the Zurich German Bible, by the Latin Version of Münster, and by the Vulgate, is disfigured by many inaccuracies, and by some interpolations from the current and familiar Latin Vulgate.

In all the editions of the Great Bible which I have examined, these interpolations from the Latin are distinctly marked by difference of type or by brackets according to Coverdale's expressed purpose. They are also partially distinguished in the earliest Psalters² 'pointed for use in Churches' (Powell for Whitechurch, Grafton [August], and Worcester [September] 1549). But the round brackets which are used to distinguish them are used even in the same verses (e.g. Ps. ii, 12) for a different purpose, and nearly a fourth, including the great interpolation in Ps. xiv (vv. 7-9), are not marked at all. In the edition of 1564 by Jugge and Cawood many more are neglected. In the edition of Barker, 1590, a few only are marked (e.g. xiv, 2, 9; xviii, 49; xxii, 1, 16, &c.). These facts shew how little critical care was used in preparing the Psalter for use in Churches; but it is clear that it would be in accordance with the purpose of those who first printed it in this form to distinguish all the additions to the Hebrew text¹.

The following is a list of the phrases which are marked in the Great Bible of April, 1540:

Ps. i, 5, from the face of the earth. „ ii, 11, unto him. „ „ 12, right. „ „ iii, 2, (in) his (God). „ iv, 8, and oil. „ vii, 12, strong and patient. „ xi, 5, the poor. „ xiii, 6, yea, I will... --	---

xii PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION

It is not easy to see on what principle these additions were taken; for there are many other interpolations of the Vulgate Latin which are unnoticed though they have equal claims to recognition: e.g. Pss. v, 6, 10, 12; vii, 2; xviii, 35; xlv, 26; xlv, 4; xlvi, 11; lii, 6; lxvi, 3; lxviii, 32; cviii, 2; cxviii, 28; cxxxviii, 1; cxlvi, 13.

The Latin titles of the Psalms are, it may be added, the first words of the "Vulgate" version. This version having been made from the Greek (LXX) and not from the Hebrew, differs widely in many places from the original, so that the headings offer some remarkable variations from the English version, e.g. Pss. xxxvi, lxii, lxxiii, lxxx, lxxxiii. The common heading of Ps. cix (Deus laudum) is a mere error which I have ventured to correct.

This is not the place to enter further in detail into the mistakes of the Prayer-book Psalter. It is not perhaps too much to hope that the unquestionable errors of rendering and form may be dealt with by competent authority at no distant period. The question was prepared for Convocation in 1689, and it was proposed by the Commissioners 'to leave wholly to Convocation to consider and determine whether the amendment of the reading Psalms (as they are called) made by the Bishop of St Asaph [Lloyd] and Dr Kidder or that of the Bible [1611] shall be inserted in the Prayer-book¹.'

If such a revision were undertaken, it should be guided by the spirit of Coverdale. The precise and literal exactness which is required in a version of Scripture for study is not required in a version for use in public service. For such a purpose the main object must be to secure a plain and rhythmical expression of the sense of the original, even at the sacrifice of the letter; and any one who will compare the Prayer-book Psalter with the original will be able to convince himself that the changes which are needed to remove distinct mistakes could be made without injury to its general character.

PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION xiii

But even as it is the present text of the Prayer-book Psalter preserves in the main the great features of the structure of the Psalms which Music has to illustrate. In this respect any musician who may accept the general principles of the present arrangement will determine for himself how they can best be carried out in the particular circumstances with which he has to deal. Every effect necessary to give a true musical interpretation of the Psalms can be secured by the simplest means, by the free change of the melody, by the separate use of boys' and men's voices¹, by the introduction of unison and 'full' passages. And actual experience has shewn that such variations are neither laborious nor distracting. On the contrary, the light which is thrown by the music upon the text gives the words a new force and life; and the chanting becomes a true commentary upon the words, kindling a deeper devotion by a finer intelligence.

The experience of six years' work at Peterborough, where I have had the sympathetic help of all our musical staff, and especially of our organist Dr Haydn Keeton, in embodying the ideas which have been expressed, may justify me in giving a few examples of renderings of Psalms which have been found to be effective. These will indicate a method capable of large modifications.

In some cases a short phrase on the Organ has an admirable effect in preparing for the change of chant (e.g. Ps. cxxxvii, 6) : in others an abrupt change is more full of meaning.

Many Psalms invite a more elaborate treatment (e.g. xviii, lxviii, cvi, cxxxii), and for a most instructive model I may refer to Dr Naylor's arrangement of Ps. lxxviii.

I need scarcely say that I could not have adequately tested the present arrangement of the Psalms without the hearty co-operation of our successive Precentors, the Rev. C. Daymond, Rev. W. F. Wilkinson, Rev. T. H. Vines, and Rev. S. Phillips, and from first to last of Dr H. Keeton, to whom I offer my warmest thanks. But above all I must acknowledge my debt to the Rev. R. Brown Borthwick, Vicar of All Saints, Scarborough, without whose advice and encouragement I should not have ventured to print the Psalter. While we were occupied with tentative 'paragraph' chanting at Peterborough, Mr Brown Borthwick sent me an account of a musical rendering of Ps. lxxviii by Dr Naylor, the organist of All Saints, which though far more elaborate in treatment was in principle identical with our own. This independent and striking confirmation of the method which I desired to see carried out, led to further communications with Mr Brown Borthwick, which shewed that he had formed the plan of a Psalter similar in its essential features to this, which has been completed with the assistance of his constant counsel. I should be unwilling to make Mr Brown Borthwick responsible for all the details in the execution of the plan, but I should be no less unwilling that he should not fully share any credit which may attach to the general conception; and every sheet has had the advantage of his criticism.

PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION xv

The pointing is, with few exceptions, taken by the permission of the Syndics of the Cambridge University Press from 'the Pointed Prayer Book,' with the addition of an asterisk to mark one feature in the composition of some Psalms which is generally overlooked. Most of the verses of the Psalms consist, as has been already remarked, of two parallel members, and these are almost always correctly divided by the central 'point' (yet see xv, 2); but a considerable number of verses consist of three (see e.g. lxxvii, 16—19) or of four members. These structural breaks are generally marked by an asterisk; but in some cases the translation did not allow this method of notation (e.g. xxii, 14). A short pause in the recitation before the asterisk will sufficiently indicate the form of the composition.

If the book contributes in any degree to suggest new modes of interpreting the Psalms in our public worship, the labour which has been spent upon it will not have been in vain. In our Cathedrals and great Churches the Psalms are the centre of the service. They furnish splendid opportunities for the consecration of the highest gifts of musical genius and musical skill; and no nobler task can be given to the religious artist than to interpret them in a universal language. This is his proper office. The student of Theology can only offer him some clue to their structure and to their characteristic lessons in the hope that it may be of service to him as he comes to offer his own gift in Divine worship.

xvi PREFACE TO ORIGINAL EDITION

PREFACE TO REVISED EDITION

THIS Psalter is reissued in the earnest desire to help all those who, "in Quires and Places where they sing," endeavour to render the Psalms with good reverent chanting. In order to adapt it more fully to the needs of choirs, the following principles have been adopted :

I. The accentuation of a certain syllable in each recitation bar (i.e. the first bar in each division or part of an Anglican chant)—an absolute necessity in good chanting—is shown by the use of blacker or slightly larger type for such syllable, but in no case has this accent been allowed to interfere with the natural expression of the words.

The word "accentuation" must not be considered as implying a forcible stress or pressure on such syllable; it really indicates a stage from which time is to be counted or considered. As the recitation bar contains a semibreve, or its equivalent, two minim beats must always be allowed, counted or imagined, from the accented syllable, before proceeding to the next bar.

II. For the sake of simplification, only those commas have been retained which are to be observed. All redundant signs have been omitted.

In some Psalters, commas, colons and semi-colons are frequently inserted, even when it is not intended that they should be observed in chanting ; also, asterisks or other marks are used to show where a fresh breath may be taken by the singers. Such plans have not been felt advisable here, as the commas, which have purposely been made rather prominent, will have to be strictly observed to secure good pointing, and will also show where a fresh breath may be taken.

III. The Psalms have been divided into paragraphs, to enable those who are interpreting them better to understand their meaning and teaching. In this respect, the previous edition of the present Psalter has been followed in the main, but not invariably.

It is not essential that these divisions should be followed where the Psalms are treated musically, either by the use of different chants, or by variety in the form of accompaniment.

IV. In some few cases, the end of a paragraph has been indicated by inserting in the left-hand margin the words "2nd part." This is intended as a suggestion that the later half of a double chant should be repeated in order that the divisions of the Psalm may be more clearly observed.

V. The small perpendicular lines in the Psalter correspond with the bar and double bar marks of the chants.

Large dots have been used as half-bar marks for other bars than the first and last in each part of a chant.

VI. The beginning of the second part of each verse is placed in all cases at the beginning of a fresh line and is marked by a thin double bar on the left-hand side of the first word.

VII. When a syllable has to be sustained beyond its ordinary length, a short horizontal line will be found after such syllable to show how long the syllable is to continue. Each line represents the value of a minim or half-bar.

PREFACE TO REVISED EDITION xix

VIII. No marks of expression—or of light and shade for musical treatment—have been added, as it was felt that these, to some extent, must vary with the chants which may be used in each particular case.

In sincere hope that this revised Psalter will prove helpful to the better rendering of one of the most beautiful parts of our Church Service, it is now humbly submitted for the use of Choirs and other lovers of Psalm-singing.

The Canticles and Hymns

At Morning Prayer

VENITE, EXULTEMUS DOMINO.

PSALM XCV.

A call to worship.

O COME let us sing | unto • the | Lord ||
|| let us heartily rejoice in the | strength • of |
our • sal- | -vation.

2 Let us come before his presence with | thanks- • — |
-giving ||
|| and shew ourselves | glad • in | him • with | psalms.

The greatness of God.

3 For the Lord is a | great • — | God ||
|| and a great | King • a- | -bove • all | gods.
4 In his hand are all the corners | of • the | earth ||
|| and the strength of the | hills • is | his • — | also.
5 The sea is his | and • he | made it ||
|| and his hands pre- | -pared • the | dry • — | land.

A renewed call.

6 O come let us worship and | fall • — | down ||
|| and kneel be- | -fore • the | Lord • our | Maker.
7 For he is the | Lord • our | God ||
|| and we are the people of his pasture, and the | sheep • — | of • his | hand.

Warnings against neglect.

8 To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden | not • your | hearts ||
|| as in the provocation, and as in the day of tempt- |
-a- • -tion | in • the | wilderness ;

- 9 When your fathers | tempt- • -ed | me ||
 || proved | me • and | saw • my | works.
- 10 Forty years long was I grieved with this gener- |
 -ation • and | said ||
 || It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they | have • not | known • my | ways ;
- 11 Unto whom I sware | in • my | wrath ||
 || that they should not | en- • -ter | into • my | rest.

Glory be to the Father and | to • the | Son ||
 || and | to • the | Ho- • -ly | Ghost ;
 As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev- • -er |
 shall be ||
 || world without | end • — | A • — | -men.

BENEDICTUS.

ST. LUKE I. 68.

The fulfilment of old prophecy.

- BLESSED be the Lord God of | Is- • -ra- | -el ||
 || for he hath visited | and • re- | -deemed • his | people ;
- 2 And hath raised up a mighty sal- | -va- • -tion |
 for us ||
 || in the house | of • his | ser- • -vant | David ;
- 3 As he spake by the mouth of his | ho- • -ly |
 Prophets ||
 || which have been | since • the | world • be- | -gan ;
- 4 That we should be saved | from • our | enemies ||
 || and from the | hands • of | all • that | hate us ;
- 5 To perform the mercy promised | to • our | forefathers ||
 || and to re- | -member • his | ho- • -ly | Covenant ;
- 6 To perform the oath which he sware to our |
 fore- • -father | Abraham ||
 || that | he • would | give • — | us ;
- 7 That we being delivered out of the hand | of • our | enemies ||
 || might serve | him • with- | -out • — | fear ;
- 8 In holiness and righteousness be- | -fore • — | him ||
 || all the | days • — | of • our | life.
- The work of the new Elijah.
- 9 And thou Child shalt be called the Prophet | of • the | Highest ||
 || for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord |
 to • pre- | -pare • his | ways ;
- 10 To give knowledge of salvation | unto • his | people || || for the re- | -miss- • -ion | of • their | sins,
- 11 Through the tender mercy | of • our | God ||
 || whereby the day-spring from on | high • hath | visit- • -ed | us ;
- 12 To give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the | shadow • of | death ||
 || and to guide our feet | into • the | way • of | peace.

Glory be to the Father and | to • the | Son ||
 || and | to • the | Ho- • -ly | Ghost ;
 As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev- • -er |
 shall be ||
 || world without | end • — | A- • — | -men.

JUBILATE DEO.

PSALM C.

A twofold call and ground for worship.

- O BE joyful in the Lord | all • ye | lands ||
 || serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his | pres- • -ence | with • a | song.
- 2 Be ye sure that the Lord | he • is | God ||
 || it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves, we are his people, and the | sheep • — | of • his | pasture.
- 3 O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving,
 and into his | courts • with | praise ||
 || be thankful unto him, and speak | good • — |
 of • his | Name.
- 4 For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is | ev- • -er- |
 -lasting ||
 || and his truth endureth from gener- | -ation • to |
 gen- • -er- | -ation.

Glory be to the Father and | to • the | Son ||
 || and | to • the | Ho- • -ly | Ghost ;
 As it was in the beginning, is now and | ev- • -er |
 shall be ||
 || world without | end • — | A- • — | -men.

QUICUNQUE VULT.

- WHOSOEVER will be | sav- • -ed ||
 || before all things it is necessary that he hold the | Catho- • -lick | Faith.
- 2 Which Faith except every one do keep whole and
 unde- | -fil- • -ed ||
 || without doubt he shall perish | ev- • -er- |
 -lastingly.

A confession of faith in the Holy Trinity.

- 3 And the Catholick Faith is | this • — ||
 || that we worship one God in Trinity, and Trini- |
 -ty • in | Unity;
- 4 Neither confounding the | Per- • -sons ||
 || nor di- | -viding • the | Substance.
- 5 For there is one Person of the Father, another of the | Son • — ||
 || and another of the | Ho- • -ly | Ghost.
- 6 But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, is all | one • — ||
 || the Glory equal, the Majesty | co- • -e- | -ternal.
- 7 Such as the Father is, such is the | Son • — ||
 || and such is the | Ho- • -ly | Ghost.
- 8 The Father uncreate, the Son uncre- | -ate • — ||
 || and the Holy Ghost | un- • -cre- | -ate.
- 9 The Father incomprehensible, the Son incompre- |
 -hensi- • -ble ||
 || and the Holy Ghost in- | -com- • -pre- | -hensible.
- 10 The Father eternal, the Son e- | -ter- • -nal ||
 || and the Holy | Ghost • e- | -ternal.
- 11 And yet they are not three e- | -ter- • -nals ||
 || but | one • e- | -ternal.
- 12 As also there are not three incomprehensibles, nor three uncre- | -a- • -ted ||
 || but one uncreated, and one in- | -com- • -pre- |
 -hensible.
- 13 So likewise the Father is Almighty, the Son Al- |
 -might- • -y ||
 || and the Holy | Ghost • Al- | -mighty.
- 14 And yet they are not three Al- | -might- • -ies ||
 || but | one • Al- | -mighty.
- 15 So the Father is God, the Son is | God • — ||
 || and the Holy | Ghost • is | God.
- 16 And yet they are not three | Gods • — ||
 || but | one • — | God.
- 17 So likewise the Father is Lord, the Son | Lord • — ||
 || and the Holy | Ghost • — | Lord.
- 18 And yet not three | Lords • — ||
 || but | one • — | Lord.
- 19 For like as we are compelled by the Christian |
 veri- • -ty ||
 || to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be |
 God • and | Lord;

- 20 So are we forbidden by the Catholick Re- | -li- • -gion ||
 || to say, There be three Gods or | three • — | Lords.
- 21 The Father is made of | none • — ||
 || neither created | nor • be- | -gotten.
- 22 The Son is of the Father a- | -lone • — ||
 || not made, nor created | but • be- | -gotten.
- 23 The Holy Ghost is of the Father and of the | Son • — ||
 || neither made, nor created, nor begotten | but • pro- | -ceeding.
- 24 So there is one Father, not three Fathers, one Son
 not | three • Sons ||
 || one Holy Ghost, not three | Ho- • -ly | Ghosts.
- 25 And in this Trinity none is afore or after | oth- • -er ||
 || none is greater or | less than • an- | -other;
- 26 But the whole three Persons are co-eternal to- |
 -ge- • -ther ||
 || and | co- • — | -equal.
- 27 So that in all things, as is a- | -fore- • -said ||
 || the Unity in Trinity, and the Trinity in Unity | is • to be | worshipped.
- 28 He therefore that will be | sav- • -ed ||
 || must thus think | of • the | Trinity.
- 29 Furthermore, it is necessary to everlasting sal- |
 -va- • -tion ||
 || that he also believe rightly the Incarnation of our Lord | Je- • -sus | Christ.

A confession of faith in the Incarnation.

- 30 For the right Faith is, that we believe and con- |
 -fess • — ||
 || that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God is |
God • and | Man;
- 31 God, of the Substance of the Father, begotten before
 the | worlds • — ||
 || and Man, of the Substance of his Mother, born | in • the | world.
- 32 Perfect God, and perfect | Man • — ||
 || of a reasonable soul and human | flesh • sub- |
 -sisting.
- 33 Equal to the Father, as touching his | God- • -head ||
 || and inferior to the Father as | touching • his | Manhood.
- 34 Who although he be God and | Man • — ||
 || yet he is not two but | one • — | Christ.

- 35 One, not by conversion of the Godhead into |
flesh • — ||
|| but by taking of the Manhood | in- • -to | God.
- 36 One altogether, not by confusion of | sub- • -stance ||
|| but by | unity • of | Person.
- 37 For as the reasonable soul and flesh is one | man • — ||
|| so God and Man is | one • — | Christ.
- 38 Who suffered for our sal- | -va- • -tion ||
|| descended into hell, rose again the third day |
from • the | dead.
- 39 He ascended into heaven, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Al- | -might- • -y ||
|| from whence he shall come to judge the quick | and • the | dead.
- 40 At whose coming all men shall rise again with their |
bod- • -ies ||
|| and shall give account for their | own • — | works.
- 41 And they that have done good shall go into life
ever- | -last- • -ing ||
|| and they that have done evil into ever- | -last- • -ing | fire.
- 42 This is the Catholick | Faith • — ||
|| which except a man believe faithfully he | cannot • be | saved.
- Glory be to the Father, and to the | Son • — ||
|| and to the | Ho- • -ly | Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever |
shall • be ||
|| world without end | A- • — | -men.

THE PSALMS OF DAVID

Morning Prayer

PSALM 1. Beatus vir, qui non abiit, &c.

The blessedness of the righteous

BLESSED is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way • of | sinners ||

|| and hath not sat in the | seat • — | of • the | scornful.

2 But his delight is in the law | of • the | Lord ||
|| and in his law will he exercise him- | -self • — | day • and | night.

3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the | wa- • -ter- | -side ||
|| that will bring forth his | fruit • in | due • — | season.

4 His leaf also | shall • not | wither ||
|| and look, whatsoever he | do- • -eth | it • shall | prosper.

contrasted with the fate of the ungodly.

5 As for the ungodly, it is not | so • with | them ||
|| but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the | face • — | of • the | earth.

6 Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand | in • the | judgement ||
|| neither the sinners in the congre- | -ga- • -tion | of • the | righteous.

7 But the Lord knoweth the way | of • the | righteous ||
|| and the way | of • the un- | -godly • shall | perish.

PSALM 2. Quare fremuerunt gentes?

- 2 The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers
 take | counsel • to- | -gether ||
 || against the Lord and a- | -gainst • — | his • An- |
 -ointed.
- 3 Let us break their | bonds • a- | -sunder ||
 || and cast a- | -way • their | cords • — | from us.

The answer of Jehovah.

- 4 He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh | them • to |
 scorn ||
 || the Lord shall | have • them | in • de- | -rision.
- 5 Then shall he speak unto them | in • his | wrath ||
 || and vex them | in • his | sore • dis- | -pleasure.
- 6 Yet have I | set • my | King ||
 || upon my | ho- • -ly | hill • of | Sion.

- 7 I will preach the law, whereof the Lord hath said |
 un- • -to | me ||
 || Thou art my Son, this day have | I • be- |
 -got • -ten | thee.
- 8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for |
 thine • in- | -heritance ||
 || and the utmost parts of the | earth • for | thy • pos- |
 -session.
- 9 Thou shalt bruise them with a | rod • of | iron ||
 || and break them in pieces | like • a | pot • -ter's | vessel.

The counsel of submission.

- 10 Be wise now therefore | O • ye | kings ||
 || be learned, ye that are | judg- • -es | of • the | earth.
- 11 Serve the | Lord • in | fear ||
 || and rejoice | un- • -to | him • with | reverence.
- 12 Kiss the Son lest he be angry, and so ye perish from the | right • — | way ||
 || if his wrath be kindled, yea but a little, blessed are all they that | put • their | trust • in | him.

PSALM 14. Dixit insipiens.

The spirit of folly.

- THE fool hath said | in • his | heart ||
 || There | is • — | no • — | God.
 2 They are corrupt and become abominable | in • their | doings ||
 || there is none that doeth | good • — | no • not | one.

God's sentence.

- 3 The Lord looked down from heaven upon the |
 children • of | men ||
 || to see if there were any that would understand and | seek • — | af • -ter | God.

- 4 But they are all gone out of the way, they are altogether be- | -come • ab- | -ominable ||
|| there is none that doeth | good • — | no • not | one.
- 5 Their throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues have | they • de- | -ceived ||

- 7 Destruction and unhappiness is in their ways, and

|| there is no fear of | God • be- | -fore • their | eyes.
- 8 Have they no knowledge, that they are all such | workers • of | mischief ||
|| eating up my people as it were bread, and call | not • up- | -on • the | Lord?

Its issue.

- 9 There were they brought in great fear, even where | no • fear | was ||
|| for God is in the gener- | -a • -tion | of • the | righteous.
- 10 As for you, ye have made a mock at the counsel |

PSALM 17. Exaudi, Domine.

An appeal to God's righteousness.

- HEAR the right O Lord, consider | my • com- |

PSALM 18. Diligam te, Domine.

The lesson of the life of faith.

- I WILL love thee O Lord my strength, the Lord

 || my Saviour my God and my might, in whom I will trust, my buckler, the horn also of my sal- |
 -va- • -tion | and • my | refuge.
- 2 I will call upon the Lord, which is worthy | to • be | praised ||
 || so shall I be | safe • — | from • mine | enemies.

The believer's experience.

- 3 The sorrows of death | compass- • -ed | me ||
 || and the overflowings of ungodliness | made • — |
 me • a- | -fraid.
- 4 The pains of hell | came • a- | -bout me ||
 || the snares of | death • — | o- • -ver- | -took me.
- 5 In my trouble I will call up- | -on • the | Lord ||
 || and com- | -plain • — | unto • my | God.
- 6 So shall he hear my voice out of his | ho- • -ly | temple ||
 || and my complaint shall come before him, it shall enter | e- • -ven | into • his | ears.

The revelation of God in His majesty.

- 7 The earth | trembled • and | quaked ||
 || the very foundations also of the hills shook, and were removed be- | -cause • — | he • was | wroth.
- 8 There went a smoke out | in • his | presence ||
 || and a consuming fire out of his mouth so that | coals • were | kin- • -dled | at it.
- 9 He bowed the heavens also and | came • — | down ||
 || and it was | dark • — | under • his | feet.
- 10 He rode upon the cherubims | and • did | fly ||
 || he came flying upon the | wings • — | of • the |
 wind.
- 11 He made darkness his | se- • -cret | place ||
 || his pavilion round about him with dark water, and thick | clouds • to | cov- • -er | him.
- 12 At the brightness of his presence his | clouds • re- |
 -moved ||
 || hail- | -stones • and | coals • of | fire.
- 13 The Lord also thundered out of heaven, and the Highest | gave • his | thunder ||
 || hail- | -stones • and | coals • of | fire.
- 14 He sent out his arrows and | scatter- • -ed | them ||
 || he cast forth lightnings | and • de- | -stroy- • -ed |
 them.
- 2nd 15 The springs of waters were seen, and the foundations part of the round world were discovered at thy |
 chiding • O | Lord ||
 || at the blasting of the | breath • of | thy • dis- |
 -pleasure.

Divine help.

- 16 He shall send down from on | high • to | fetch me ||
 || and shall take me | out • of | ma- • -ny | waters.

- 17 He shall deliver me from my strongest enemy, and from | them • which | hate me ||
 || for they | are • too | might- • -y | for me.
- 18 They prevented me in the day | of • my | trouble ||
 || but the | Lord • was | my • up- | -holder.
- 19 He brought me forth also into a | place • of | liberty ||
 || he brought me forth, even because he had a |
 fa- • -vour | un- • -to | me.

Man's preparation.

- 20 The Lord shall reward me after my | right- • -eous | dealing ||
 || according to the cleanness of my hands | shall • he |
 recom- • -pense | me.
- 21 Because I have kept the ways | of • the | Lord ||
 || and have not forsaken my God | as • the |
 wick- • -ed | doth.
- 22 For I have an eye unto | all • his | laws ||
 || and will not cast out | his • com- | -mand- • -ments | from me.
- 23 I was also uncor- | -rupt • be- | -fore him ||
 || and es- | -chewed • mine | own • — | wickedness.
- 2nd part 24 Therefore shall the Lord reward me after my | right- • -eous | dealing ||

 hands • — | in • his | eye-sight.

The law of God's action.

- 25 With the holy thou | shalt • be | holy ||
 || and with a perfect | man • thou | shalt • be | perfect.
- 26 With the clean thou | shalt • be | clean ||

 frowardness.
- 27 For thou shalt save the people that are | in • ad- |
 -versity ||
 || and shalt bring down the | high • looks | of • the | proud.
- 28 Thou also shalt | light • my | candle ||
 || the Lord my God shall make my | dark- • -ness |
 to • be | light.
- 29 For in thee I shall discomfit an | host • of | men ||
 || and with the help of my God I shall | leap • — | over • the | wall.

30 The way of God is an unde- | -fil- • -ed | way ||
 || the word of the Lord also is tried in the fire, he is the defender of all them that | put • their | trust • in | him.

Strength and victory through God.

31 For who is God | but • the | Lord ||

 32 It is God that girdeth me with | strength • of | war ||

 35 Thou hast given me the defence of | thy • sal- |

 || thy right hand also shall hold me up, and thy loving cor- | -rection • shall | make • me | great.
 36 Thou shalt make room enough under me | for • to | go ||
 || that my | foot- • -steps | shall • not | slide.
 37 I will follow upon mine enemies and | o- • -ver- |

 38 I will smite them, that they shall not be | able • to | stand ||

 39 Thou hast girded me with strength | unto • the | battle ||
 || thou shalt throw down mine | en- • -emies |
 un- • -der | me.
 40 Thou hast made mine enemies also to turn their | backs • up- | -on me ||

 41 They shall cry, but there shall be | none • to | help
 them ||
 || yea even unto the Lord shall they cry | but • he |
 shall • not | hear them.
 42 I will beat them as small as the dust be- | -fore • the | wind ||
 || I will cast them out as the | clay • — | in • the | streets.

43 Thou shalt deliver me from the strivings | of • the | people ||
 || and thou shalt make me the | head • — | of • the | heathen.

44 A people whom I | have • not | known ||
 || shall | — • — | serve • — | me.

45 As soon as they hear of me they | shall • o- | -bey me ||

 with me.

46 The strange | children • shall | fail ||

Thanksgiving in the retrospect and prospect of life.

47 The Lord liveth, and blessed be my | strong • — |

48 Even the God that seeth that I | be • a- | -venged ||

49 It is he that delivereth me from my cruel enemies, and setteth me up a- | -bove • mine | adversaries ||

50 For this cause will I give thanks unto thee O
Lord a- | -mong • the | Gentiles ||

4 I sought the Lord | and • he | heard me ||

Morning Prayer

PSALM 35. Judica, Domine.

The Psalmist pleads against his enemies.

- PLEAD thou my cause O Lord with them that | strive • with | me ||
 || and fight thou against them that | fight • a- |
 -gainst • — | me.
- 2 Lay hand upon the | shield • and | buckler ||
 || and | stand • — | up • to | help me.
- 3 Bring forth the spear, and stop the way against them that | perse- • -cute | me ||
 || say unto my soul | I • am | thy • sal- | -vation.
- 4 Let them be confounded and put to shame, that seek | after • my | soul ||
 || let them be turned back and brought to confusion,
that i- | -ma- • -gine | mis- • -chief | for me.
- 5 Let them be as the dust be- | -fore • the | wind ||
 || and the angel of the | Lord • — | scatter- • -ing |
 them.
- 6 Let their way be | dark • and | slippery ||
 || and let the angel of the | Lord • — | perse- • -cute |
 them.
- 7 For they have privily laid their net to destroy me with- | -out • a | cause ||
 || yea even without a cause have they made a |
 pit • — | for • my | soul.
- 8 Let a sudden destruction come upon him unawares, and his net that he hath laid privily |
 catch • him- | -self ||
 || that he may fall | into • his | own • — | mischief.

- 9 And my soul, be joyful | in • the | Lord ||
 || it shall re- | -joyce • in | his • sal- | -vation.
- 10 All my bones shall say, Lord who is like unto thee, who deliverest the poor from him that is too |
 strong • for | him ||
 || yea the poor and him that is in misery from |
 him • that | spoil- • -eth | him ?
 Their cruel ingratitude.
- 11 False witnesses did | rise • — | up ||
 || they laid to my charge | things • — | that • I | knew not.
- 12 They rewarded me | evil • for | good ||
 || to the great dis- | -com- • -fort | of • my | soul.
- 13 Nevertheless when they were sick I put on sackcloth, and humbled my | soul • with | fasting ||
 || and my prayer shall turn | into • mine | own • — | bosom.
- 14 I behaved myself as though it had been my friend |
 or • my | brother ||
 || I went heavily, as one that | mourn- • -eth |
 for • his | mother.
- 15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered
 them- | -selves • to- | -gether ||
 || yea, the very abjects came together against me unawares, making mouths at | me • and | ceas- • -ed | not.
- 16 With the flatterers were | bu- • -sy | mockers ||
 || who gnashed up- | -on • me | with • their | teeth.
- 17 Lord how long wilt thou | look up- • -on | this ||
 || O deliver my soul from the calamities which they bring on me, and my | dar- • -ling | from • the | lions.
- 18 So will I give thee thanks in the great | con- • -gre- |
 -gation ||
 || I will praise | thee • a- | -mong • much | people.
 Prayer for judgment leading to thanksgiving.
- 19 O let not them that are mine enemies triumph over |
 me • un- | -godly ||
 || neither let them wink with their eyes that |
 hate • me with- | -out • a | cause.
- 20 And why, their communing is | not • for | peace ||
 || but they imagine deceitful words against them that are | qui- • -et | in • the | land.

- 21 They gaped upon me with their | mouths • and | said ||
 || Fie on thee, fie on thee we | saw • it | with • our | eyes.
- 22 This thou hast | seen • O | Lord ||
 || hold not thy tongue then, go not | far • from |
 me • O | Lord.
- 23 Awake and stand up to | judge • my | quarrel ||
 || avenge thou my cause my | God • — | and • my |
 Lord.
- 24 Judge me O Lord my God according | to • thy |
 righteousness ||
 || and let them not | tri- • -umph | o- • -ver | me.
- 25 Let them not say in their hearts, There, there, so |
 would • we | have it ||
 || neither let them say We | have • de- | -vour- • -ed |
 him.
- 26 Let them be put to confusion and shame together that rejoice | at • my | trouble ||
 || let them be clothed with rebuke and dishonour that | boast • them- | -selves • a- | -gainst me.
- 27 Let them be glad and rejoice that favour my |
 right- • -eous | dealing ||
 || yea let them say alway, Blessed be the Lord who hath pleasure in the pro- | -speri- • -ty | of • his | servant.
- 28 And as for my tongue, it shall be talking | of • thy |
 righteousness ||

PSALM 36. Dixit injustus.

The recklessness of the wicked.

- MY heart sheweth me the wickedness |

- 2 For he flattereth himself in his | own • — | sight ||

- 3 The words of his mouth are unrighteous and full |

4 He imagineth mischief upon his bed, and hath set

The unfailing goodness of God.

5 Thy mercy O Lord reacheth | unto • the | heavens ||

6 Thy righteousness standeth like the | strong • — |

7 Thou Lord shalt save both man and beast, How PSALM 37. Noli emulari.

The just retribution of God.

FRET not thyself because of | the • un- | -godly ||
 || neither be thou envious a- | -gainst • the |
 e- • -vil | doers.

2 For they shall soon be cut down | like • the | grass ||

Patience has its reward.

- 3 Put thou thy trust in the Lord and be | do- • -ing |

- 4 Delight thou | in • the | Lord ||

- 5 Commit thy way unto the Lord, and put thy |

- 6 He shall make thy righteousness as clear | as • the |

- 7 Hold thee still in the Lord, and abide patiently up- |

prosper, against the man that doeth | af- • -ter |
e • -vil | counsels.
- 8 Leave off from wrath and let | go • dis- | -pleasure ||
|| fret not thyself, else shalt thou be | moved • to |
do • — | evil.
- 9 Wicked doers shall be | root- • -ed | out ||
|| and they that patiently abide the Lord |
those • shall in- | -herit • the | land.
- 10 Yet a little while, and the ungodly shall be | clean • — | gone ||

be • a- | -way.
- 11 But the meek-spirited shall pos- | -sess • the | earth ||
|| and shall be refreshed in the | mul- • -ti- |
-tude • of | peace.

The strength of the wicked is weakness.

- 12 The ungodly seeketh counsel a- | -gainst • the | just ||
|| and gnasheth up- | -on • him | with • his | teeth.
- 13 The Lord shall laugh | him • to | scorn ||
|| for he hath seen | that • his | day • is | coming.
- 14 The ungodly have drawn out the sword and have |
bent • their | bow ||
|| to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay such as are of a | right • — | con- • -ver- | -sation.
- 15 Their sword shall go through their | own • — |
heart ||
|| and their | bow • — | shall • be | broken.

- 16 A small thing that the | right- • -eous | hath ||
 || is better than great | rich- • -es | of • the un- |
 -godly.
- 17 For the arms of the ungodly | shall • be | broken ||

- 18 The Lord knoweth the days | of • the | godly ||
 || and their inheritance | shall • en- | -dure • for | ever.
- 19 They shall not be confounded in the | peril- • -ous |
 time ||
 || and in the days of dearth | they • shall | have • e- | -nough.
- 20 As for the ungodly they shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall consume as the | fat • of | lambs ||
 || yea even as the smoke shall | they • con- |
 -sume • a- | -way.

The sure reward of the righteous.

- 21 The ungodly borroweth, and payeth | not • a- | -gain ||
 || but the righteous is | mer- • -ci- | -ful • and | liberal.
- 22 Such as are blessed of God shall pos- | -sess • the | land ||
 || and they that are cursed of him | shall • be |
 root- • -ed | out.
- 23 The Lord ordereth a | good • man's | going ||
 || and maketh his way ac- | -cepta- • -ble | to • him- | -self.
- 24 Though he fall, he shall not be | cast • a- | -way ||
 || for the Lord up- | -holdeth • him | with • his | hand.
- 25 I have been young and | now • am | old ||

- 26 The righteous is ever merci- | -ful • and | lendeth ||

- 27 Flee from evil, and do the thing | that • is | good ||
 || and | dwell • for | ev- • -er- | -more.
- 28 For the Lord loveth the thing | that • is | right ||
 || he forsaketh not his that be godly, but they |

- 29 The unrighteous | shall • be | punished ||
 || as for the seed of the ungodly it | shall • be |
 root- • -ed | out.

30 The righteous shall in- | -herit • the | land ||
 || and | dwell • there- | -in • for | ever.

Counsels of wisdom for life.

31 The mouth of the righteous is exer- | -cised • in | wisdom ||

|| and his tongue | will • be | talking • of | judgement.

32 The law of his God is | in • his | heart ||

|| and his | go- • -ings | shall • not | slide.

33 The ungodly | seeth • the | righteous ||

|| and | seeketh • oc- | -casion • to | slay him.

34 The Lord will not leave him | in • his | hand ||

|| nor con- | -demn • him | when • he is | judged.

35 Hope thou in the Lord and keep his way, and he shall promote thee that thou shalt pos- |
 -sess • the | land ||

|| when the ungodly shall | per- • -ish | thou • shalt | see it.

36 I myself have seen the ungodly in | great • — | power ||

|| and flourishing | like • a | green • — | bay-tree.

37 I went by, and lo | he • was | gone ||

|| I sought him, but his place could | no • — |
 where • be | found.

38 Keep innocency, and take heed unto the thing | that • is | right ||

39 As for the transgressors, they shall | perish • to- | -gether ||

|| and the end of the ungodly is, they shall be rooted | out • — | at • the | last.

40 But the salvation of the righteous cometh | of • the |
 Lord ||

PSALM 38. Domine, ne in furore.

 2 For thine arrows stick | fast • in | me ||

Affliction of body.

- 3 There is no health in my flesh because of |

 4 For my wickednesses are gone | over • my | head ||

 5 My wounds stink and | are • cor- | -rupt ||

 6 I am brought into so great | trouble • and | misery ||

 7 For my loins are filled with a | sore • dis- | -ease ||

 8 I am feeble and | sore • — | smitten ||

 9 Lord, thou knowest all | my • de- | -sire ||

 10 My heart panteth, my strength hath | fail- • -ed |

Afflictions from men.

- 11 My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking up- |
 -on • my | trouble ||
 || and my kinsmen | stood • a- | -far • — | off.

- 12 They also that sought after my life laid | snares • for |

|| and they that went about to do me evil talked of wickedness, and imagined deceit | all • the |
day • — | long.
- 13 As for me, I was like a deaf | man • and | heard not ||
|| and as one that is dumb who | doth • not |
open • his | mouth.
- 14 I became even as a man that | hear • -eth | not ||
|| and in whose | mouth • are | no • re- | -proofs.

God is the only refuge.

- 15 For in thee O Lord have I | put • my | trust ||
|| thou shalt answer for | me • O | Lord • my | God.
- 16 I have required that they, even mine enemies,
should not triumph | o • -ver | me ||
|| for when my foot slipped, they re- | -joi • -ced |
great • -ly a- | -gainst me.
- 17 And I truly am set | in • the | plague ||
|| and my heaviness is | ev • -er | in • my | sight.
- 18 For I will con- | -fess • my | wickedness ||
|| and be | sor • -ry | for • my | sin.
- 19 But mine enemies live | and • are | mighty ||
|| and they that hate me wrongfully are | ma • -ny |
in • — | number.
- 20 They also that reward evil for good | are • a- |
-gainst me ||
|| because I follow the | thing • that | good • — | is.
- 21 Forsake me not O | Lord • my | God ||

- 22 Haste | thee • to | help me ||

PSALM 39. Dixi, Custodiam.

The trial of faith.

- 2 I will keep my mouth as it were | with • a | bridle ||

- 3 I held my tongue and | spake • — | nothing ||
 || I kept silence, yea even from good words, but it was | pain • and | grief • to | me.
- 4 My heart was hot within me, and while I was thus musing the | fire • — | kindled ||
 || and at the last I | spake • — | with • my | tongue;

The petition of man in his frailty.

- 5 Lord, let me know mine end, and the number | of • my | days ||

- 6 Behold thou hast made my days as it were a |

 || he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell | who • shall |
 ga- • -ther | them.

God can give rest after chastening.

- 8 And now Lord, what | is • my | hope ||

- 9 Deliver me from all | mine • of- | -fences ||

- 10 I became dumb, and opened | not • my | mouth ||

- 11 Take thy plague a- | -way • from | me ||
 || I am even consumed by the means | of • thy |

Spare, Lord!

- 13 Hear my prayer O Lord, and with thine ears con- |

The blessedness of the merciful.

- BLESSED is he that considereth the | poor • and | trouble.

- 2 The Lord preserve him and keep him alive, that he may be blessed up- | -on • — | earth ||

- 3 The Lord comfort him when he lieth sick up- |

- 6 And if he come to see me he | speak- • -eth | vanity ||
 || and his heart conceiveth falsehood within himself, and when he cometh | forth • he | tell- • -eth | it.
- 7 All mine enemies whisper together a- | -gainst • — |

- 8 Let the sentence of guiltiness pro- | -ceed • a- |

- 9 Yea even mine own familiar friend | whom • I |

Confidence in present affliction.

- 10 But be thou merciful unto | me • O | Lord ||

- 2 Corrupt are they, and become abominable | in • their |

- 5 Are not they without understanding that | work • — |

- Its issue.
- 6 They were afraid where | no • fear | was ||

PSALM 63. Deus, Deus meus.

The soul's desire for God.

- O GOD, thou | art • my | God ||
 || early | will • I | seek • — | thee.
 2 My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh also longeth |
 af- • -ter | thee ||

 3 Thus have I looked for | thee • in | holiness ||

Blessedness of fellowship with Him.

- 4 For thy loving-kindness is better than the | life • it- |

 5 As long as I live will I magnify thee | on • this |

- 6 He is the God that maketh men to be of one mind

10 I wept, and chastened my- | -self • with | fasting ||

17 Hear me O Lord, for thy loving- | -kindness • is | comfortable ||

- 22 They gave me | gall • to | eat ||
 || and when I was thirsty they gave me | vin- • -e- |

PSALM 73. Quam bonus Israel!

Trust and temptation.

TRULY God is loving unto | Is- • -ra- | -el ||
 || even unto such as | are • of a | clean • — |
 heart.

2 Nevertheless my feet were | al- • -most | gone ||
 || my | treadings • had | well- • -nigh | slipt.

The mystery of prosperous wickedness.

3 And why, I was grieved | at • the | wicked ||
 || I do also see the un- | -godly • in | such • pro- | -sperity.

4 For they are in no | peril • of | death ||
 || but are | lus- • -ty | and • — | strong.

5 They come in no misfortune like | o- • -ther | folk ||
 || neither are they | plagued • like | o- • -ther | men.

6 And this is the cause that they are so | holden • with | pride ||
 || and | o- • -ver- | -whelmed • with | cruelty.

7 Their eyes | swell • with | fatness ||
 || and they do | e- • -ven | what • they | lust.

8 They corrupt other, and speak of | wick- • -ed |
 blasphemy ||
 || their talking is a- | -gainst • the | most • — | High.

9 For they stretch forth their mouth | unto • the | heaven ||
 || and their tongue | go- • -eth | through • the | world.

10 Therefore fall the people | un- • -to | them ||
 || and thereout suck | they • no | small • ad- |
 -vantage.

11 Tush say they, how should | God • per- | -ceive it ||
 || is there knowledge | in • the | most • — | High?

12 Lo these are the ungodly, these prosper in the world, and these have riches | in • pos- |
 -session ||

|| and I said, Then have I cleansed my heart in vain and | washed • mine | hands • in | innocency.

- 13 All the day long have | I • been | punished ||
 || and | chas- • -tened | ev- • -ery | morning.
 14 Yea and I had almost said | even • as | they ||
 || but lo, then I should have condemned the gener- | -a- • -tion | of • thy | children.

The solution.

- 15 Then thought I to under- | -stand • — | this ||
 || but it | was • too | hard • for | me,
 16 Until I went into the sanctuary | of • — | God ||
 || then understood I the | end • of | these • — | men ;
 17 Namely how thou dost set them in | slippe- • -ry | places ||
 || and castest them down | and • de- | -stroy- • -est |
 them.
 18 Oh how suddenly do | they • con- | -sume ||
 || perish and | come • to a | fear • -ful | end !
 19 Yea even like as a dream | when • one a- | -waketh ||
 || so shalt thou make their image to | van- • -ish |
 out of • the | city.
 20 Thus my | heart • was | grieved ||
 || and it went | e- • -ven | through • my | reins.
 21 So foolish was | I • and | ignorant ||
 || even as it | were • a | beast • be- | -fore thee.

The sure trust of the righteous.

- 22 Nevertheless I am | alway • by | thee ||
 || for thou hast holden me | by • my | right • — | hand.
 23 Thou shalt guide me | with • thy | counsel ||
 || and after that re- | -ceive • — | me • with | glory.
 24 Whom have I in | heaven • but | thee ||
 || and there is none upon earth that I desire in
 com- | -pari- • -son | of • — | thee.
 25 My flesh and my | heart • — | faileth ||
 || but God is the strength of my heart | and • my | portion • for | ever.
 26 For lo, they that forsake | thee • shall | perish ||
 || thou hast destroyed all them that commit fornic- |
 -ation • a- | -gainst • — | thee.
 27 But it is good for me to hold me fast by God, to put my trust in the | Lord • — | God ||
 || and to speak of all thy works in the gates | of • the | daughter • of | Sion.

Prayer in the desolation of Sion.

- O GOD, wherefore art thou absent from | us • so |

 of • thy | pasture?
- 2 O think upon thy | con- • -gre- | -gation ||

- 3 Think upon the tribe of | thine • in- | -heritance ||

- 4 Lift up thy feet, that thou mayest utterly destroy |

- The havoc wrought by enemies.
- 5 Thine adversaries roar in the midst of thy |

- 6 He that hewed timber afore out of the | thick • — |

- 7 But now they break down all the carved |

- 8 They have set fire upon thy | ho- • -ly | places ||
 || and have defiled the dwelling-place of thy Name | e- • -ven | unto • the | ground.
- 9 Yea they said in their hearts, Let us make havock
 of them | al- • -to- | -gether ||
 || thus have they burnt up all the houses of |
 God • — | in • the | land.
- 10 We see not our tokens, there is not one |
 pro- • -phet | more ||
 || no, not one is there among us, that under- |
 -stand- • -eth | a- • -ny | more.
- 11 O God, how long shall the adversary do |
 this • dis- | -honour ||
 || how long shall the enemy blas- | -pheme • thy |
 Name • for | ever?

12 Why withdrawest | thou • thy | hand ||
 || why pluckest thou not thy right hand out of thy bosom | to • con- | -sume • the | enemy?

God's help of old.

13 For God is my | King • of | old ||
 || the help that is done upon earth he | do • -eth |
 it • him- | -self.

14 Thou didst divide the sea | through • thy | power || in • the | waters.

15 Thou smotest the heads of Levia- | -than • in | pieces ||
 || and gavest him to be meat for the | peo • -ple |
 in • the | wilderness.

16 Thou broughtest out fountains and waters out of the | hard • — | rocks ||
 || thou | driedst • up | might • -y | waters.

17 The day is thine and the | night • is | thine ||

18 Thou hast set all the borders | of • the | earth ||

Remember us, O Lord.

19 Remember this O Lord, how the enemy | hath • re- |

20 O deliver not the soul of thy turtle-dove unto the poor • for | ever.

21 Look up- | -on • the | covenant ||

|| for all the earth is full of darkness and | cru • -el | ha • -bit- | -ations.

22 O let not the simple go a- | -way • a- | -shamed ||

PSALM 78. Attendite, popule.

The lessons of the providential history of Israel.

- HEAR my law | O • my | people ||
 || incline your ears unto the | words • — |
 of • my | mouth.
- 2 I will open my mouth | in • a | parable ||
 || I will declare hard | sen • -ten- | -ces • of | old ;
- 3 Which we have | heard • and | known ||
 || and such as our | fathers • have | told • — | us ;
- 4 That we should not hide them from the children of the gener- | -ations • to | come ||
 || but to shew the honour of the Lord, his mighty and wonderful | works • that | he • hath | done.
- 5 He made a covenant with Jacob, and gave Isra- |
 -el • a | law ||
 || which he commanded our fore- | -fathers • to | teach • their | children ;

- 6 That their posterity • might | know it ||
 || and the children | which • were | yet • un- | -born ;
- 7 To the intent that when | they • came | up ||
 || they might | shew • their | children • the | same ;
- 8 That they might put their | trust • in | God ||
 || and not to forget the works of God, but to | keep • — | his • com- | -mandments ;
- 9 And not to be as their forefathers, a faithless and stubborn | gen- • -er- | -ation ||
 || a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit cleaveth not | stedfast- • -ly |
 un- • -to | God ;
- 10 Like as the | children • of | Ephraim ||
 || who being harnessed and carrying bows, turned themselves back | in • the | day • of | battle.
- 11 They kept not the coven- | -ant • of | God ||
 || and would not | walk • — | in • his | law ;
- 12 But forgot what | he • had | done ||
 || and the wonderful works that | he • had |
 shew- • -ed | for them.

The first miracles of the Exodus.

- 13 Marvellous things did he in the sight of our forefathers, in the | land • of | Egypt ||
 || even | in • the | field • of | Zoan.
- 14 He divided the sea, and let | them • go | through ||
 || he made the waters to | stand • — | on • an | heap.
- 15 In the day-time also he led them | with • a | cloud ||
 || and all the night through | with • a | light • of |
 fire.
- 16 He clave the hard rocks | in • the | wilderness ||
 || and gave them drink thereof, as it had been | out of • the | great • — | depth.
- 17 He brought waters out of the | sto- • -ny | rock ||
 || so that it gushed | out • — | like • the | rivers.

The murmurings of the people.

- 18 Yet for all this they sinned | more • a- | -gainst
 him ||
 || and provoked the most | High- • -est | in • the |
 wilderness.
- 19 They tempted God | in • their | hearts ||
 || and required | meat • — | for • their | lust.

20 They spake against God | al- • -so | saying ||
 || Shall God prepare a | ta- • -ble | in • the |
 wilderness?

21 He smote the stony rock indeed that the water gushed out, and the streams | flowed • with- | -al ||
 || but can he give bread also, or provide | flesh • — |
 for • his | people?

Miraculous answer to the murmuring.

22 When the Lord heard this | he • was | wroth ||
 || so the fire was kindled in Jacob, and there came up heavy displeasure a- | -gainst • — | Is- • -ra- | -el;

23 Because they believed | not • in | God ||
 || and put not their | trust • — | in • his | help.

24 So he commanded the | clouds • a- | -bove ||
 || and | opened • the | doors • of | heaven.

25 He rained down manna also upon them | for • to | eat ||
 || and | gave • them | food • from | heaven.

26 So man did eat | an- • -gels' | food ||
 || for he | sent • them | meat • e- | -nough.

27 He caused the east-wind to blow | un- • -der |
 heaven ||

|| and through his power he brought | in • the |
 south- • -west- | -wind.

28 He rained flesh upon them as | thick • as | dust ||
 || and feathered fowls like as the | sand • — |
 of • the | sea.

29 He let it fall a- | -mong • their | tents ||
 || even round a- | -bout • their | ha- • -bit- | -ation.

30 So they did eat and were well filled, for he gave them their | own • de- | -sire ||
 || they were not disap- | -point- • -ed | of • their | lust.

31 But while the meat was yet in their mouths, the heavy wrath of God came upon them, and slew
 the | wealth- • -iest | of them ||

|| yea and smote down the chosen men that | were • in | Is- • -ra- | -el.

Vicissitudes of judgment and faith.

32 But for all this they | sinned • yet | more ||
 || and believed | not • his | won- • -drous | works.

33 Therefore their days did he con- | -sume • in | vanity ||

|| and their | years • — | in • — | trouble.

- 34 When he slew them they | sought • — | him ||
 || and turned them early, and in- | -quir- • -ed |
 af- • -ter | God.
- 35 And they remembered that God | was • their | strength ||
 || and that the high | God • was | their • re- |
 -deemer.
- 36 Nevertheless, they did but flatter him | with • their | mouth ||
 || and dissemble | with • him | in • their | tongue.
- 37 For their heart was not | whole • with | him ||
 || neither continued they | sted- • -fast | in • his | covenant.
- 38 But he was so merciful, that he forgave |
 their • mis- | -deeds ||
 || and de- | -stroy- • -ed | them • — | not.
- 39 Yea many a time turned he his | wrath • a- |
 -way ||
 || and would not suffer his whole dis- | -plea- • -sure | to • a- | -rise.
- 40 For he considered that they | were • but | flesh ||
 || and that they were even a wind that passeth away and | com- • -eth | not • a- | -gain.
- 41 Many a time did they provoke him | in • the |
 wilderness ||
 || and | grieved • him | in • the | desert.
- 42 They turned back and | tempt- • -ed | God ||
 || and moved the Holy | One • in | Is- • -ra- | -el.
- 43 They thought not | of • his | hand ||
 || and of the day when he delivered them from the | hand • — | of • the | enemy;
- 44 How he had wrought his miracles | in • — |
 Egypt ||
 || and his wonders | in • the | field • of | Zoan.
- Retrospect of the divine guidance from Egypt to Canaan.
- 45 He turned their waters | in- • -to | blood ||
 || so that they might not | drink • — | of • the |

- 46 He sent lice among them, and de- | -voured • them |
 up ||

- 48 He destroyed their | vines • with | hailstones ||
 || and their mulberry- | -trees • — | with • the | frost.
- 49 He smote their cattle | also • with | hailstones ||
 || and their | flocks • with | hot • — | thunderbolts.
- 50 He cast upon them the furiousness of his wrath,
anger dis- | -pleasure • and | trouble ||
 || and sent | e • -vil | angels • a- | -mong them.
- 51 He made a way to his indignation, and spared
 not their | soul • from | death ||
 || but gave their life | o • -ver | to • the | pestilence;
- 52 And smote all the | firstborn • in | Egypt ||
 || the most principal and mightiest | in • the | dwellings • of | Ham.
- 53 But as for his own people, he led them | forth • like |
 sheep ||
 || and carried them in the | wilder- • -ness | like • a | flock.
- 54 He brought them out safely that they | should • not |
 fear ||
 || and overwhelmed their | en- • -emies | with • the | sea.
- 55 And brought them within the borders | of • his |
 sanctuary ||
 || even to his mountain which he purchased |
 with • his | right • — | hand.
- 56 He cast out the heathen | also • be- | -fore them ||
 || caused their land to be divided among them for an heritage, and made the tribes of Israel to | dwell • in | their • — | tents.

Apostacy in Canaan,

- 59 For they grieved him with their | hill- • — | -altars ||
 || and provoked him to dis- | -plea- • -sure | followed by severer chastisements.

- 60 When God heard this | he • was | wroth ||
 || and took sore dis- | -pleasure • at | Is- • -ra- | -el.

- 61 So that he forsook the tabern- | -acle • in | Silo ||
 || even the tent that he had | pitched • a- |
 -mong • — | men.
- 62 He delivered their power | into • capt- | -ivity ||
 || and their beauty | into • the | en- • -emy's |
 hand.
- 63 He gave his people over also | unto • the | sword ||
 || and was | wroth • with | his • in- | -heritance.
- 64 The fire consumed their | young • — | men ||
 || and their maidens | were • not | given • to |

- 65 Their priests were slain | with • the | sword ||
 || and there were no widows to | make • — |

God's righteous judgment and abiding kingdom.

- 66 So the Lord awaked as one | out • of | sleep ||
 || and like a | giant • re- | -freshed • with | wine.
- 67 He smote his enemies in the | hind- • -er | parts ||
 || and put them | to a • per- | -pet- • -ual | shame.
- 68 He refused the tabern- | -acle • of | Joseph ||
 || and chose | not • the | tribe • of | Ephraim ;
- 69 But chose the | tribe • of | Judah ||
 || even the hill of | Si- • -on | which • he | loved.
- 70 And there he built his | temple • on | high ||
 || and laid the foundation of it like the ground which | he • hath | made • con- | -tinually.
- 71 He chose David | also • his | servant ||
 || and took him a- | -way • — | from • the | sheep-folds.
- 72 As he was following the ewes great with |
 young ones • he | took him ||
 || that he might feed Jacob his people and |
 Isra- • -el | his • in- | -heritance.
- 73 So he fed them with a faithful and | true • — |
 heart ||
 || and ruled them | prudently • with | all • his |
 power.

Morning Prayer

PSALM 79. Deus, venerunt.

The desolation of Jerusalem.

O GOD, the heathen are come into | thine • in- |
-heritance ||

|| thy holy temple have they defiled, and made
Jerusa- | -lem • an | heap • of | stones.

2 The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls | of • the | air ||

|| and the flesh of thy saints unto the | beasts • — | of • the | land.

3 Their blood have they shed like water on every side | of • Je- | -rusalem ||

|| and there was | no man • to | bu- • -ry | them.

4 We are become an open shame | to • our | enemies ||
|| a very scorn and derision unto them | that • are |
round • a- | -bout us.

Prayer for deliverance and retribution.

5 Lord, how long wilt | thou • be | angry ||
|| shall thy jealousy | burn • like | fire • for | ever?

6 Pour out thine indignation upon the heathen that | have • not | known thee ||

|| and upon the kingdoms that have not | called • up- | -on • thy | Name.

7 For they have de- | -vour- • -ed | Jacob ||

|| and laid | waste • his | dwell- • -ing- | -place.

8 O remember not our old sins, but have mercy upon us and | that • — | soon ||

|| for we are | come • to | great • — | misery.

9 Help us O God of our salvation, for the glory | of • thy | Name ||

|| O deliver us, and be merciful unto our sins |
for • thy | Name's • — | sake.

10 Wherefore do the | hea- • -then | say ||

|| Where | is • — | now • their | God?

11 O let the vengeance of thy servants' blood | that • is | shed ||

|| be openly shewed upon the | hea- • -then | in • our | sight.

- 12 O let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners |
 come • be- | -fore thee ||
 || according to the greatness of thy power, preserve
 thou those that | are • ap- | -pointed • to | die.
- 13 And for the blasphemy wherewith our neighbours have blas- | -phem- • -ed | thee ||
 || reward thou them O Lord | seven- • -fold |
 into • their | bosom.
- 14 So we that are thy people and sheep of thy pasture, shall give thee | thanks • for | ever ||
 || and will alway be shewing forth thy praise from gener- | -ation • to | gen- • -er- | -ation.

- 4 O Lord | God • of | hosts ||

The history of Israel in a figure.

PSALM 89. Misericordias Domini.

The faithfulness of God.

MY song shall be alway of the loving-kindness |
 of • the | Lord ||

|| with my mouth will I ever be shewing thy truth
 from one gener- | -a- • -tion | to • an- | -other.

- 2 For I have said, Mercy shall be set | up • for | ever ||
 || thy truth shalt thou | stab- • -lish | in • the | heavens.

His covenant.

- 3 I have made a covenant | with • my | chosen ||
 || I have sworn | un- • -to | David • my | servant ;
 4 Thy seed will I | stablish • for | ever ||
 || and set up thy throne from one gener- |
 -a- • -tion | to • an- | -other.

The greatness of God

- 5 O Lord, the very heavens shall praise thy | won- • -drous | works ||
 || and thy truth in the congre- | -ga- • -tion | of • the | saints.

6 For who is he a- | -mong • the | clouds ||
 || that shall be com- | -pa- • -red | unto • the | Lord?

7 And what is he a- | -mong • the | gods ||

 hand.
 15 Righteousness and equity are the habitation | of • thy | seat ||
 || mercy and truth shall | go • be- | -fore • thy | face.

- 16 Blessed is the people O Lord that can re- |

|| they shall walk in the | light • — | of • thy | countenance.
- 17 Their delight shall be daily | in • thy | Name ||
|| and in thy righteousness | shall • they | make • their | boast.
- 18 For thou art the glory | of • their | strength ||

PSALM 90. Domine, refugium.

Transitoriness of man before God.

- LORD, thou hast | been • our | refuge ||
 || from one gener- | -a- • -tion | to • an- | -other.
- 2 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the | world • were | made ||
 || thou art God from everlasting and | world • with- |
 -out • — | end.
- 3 Thou turnest man | to • de- | -struction ||
 || again thou sayest, Come a- | -gain • ye |
 children • of | men.
- 4 For a thousand years in thy sight are | but • as | yesterday ||
 || seeing that is past as a | watch • — | in • the | night.
- 5 As soon as thou scatterest them they are even |
 as • a | sleep ||
 || and fade away | sudden- • -ly | like • the | grass.

- 6 In the morning it is green and | grow- • -eth | up ||
 || but in the evening it is cut down | dri- • -ed |
 up • and | withered.
- 7 For we consume away in | thy • dis- | -pleasure ||
 || and are afraid at thy | wrath- • -ful | in- • -dig- |
 -nation.
- 8 Thou hast set our mis- | -deeds • be- | -fore thee ||
 || and our secret sins in the | light • — | of • thy | countenance.
- 9 For when thou art angry all our | days • are | gone ||
 || we bring our years to an end, as it were a |
 tale • — | that • is | told.
- 10 The days of our age are threescore years and ten, and though men be so strong that they come to | four- • -score | years ||
 || yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soon passeth it a- | -way • and | we • are | gone.
- 11 But who regardeth the power | of • thy | wrath ||
 || for even thereafter as a man feareth | so • is |
 thy • dis- | -pleasure.
- 12 So teach us to | number • our | days ||
 || that we may apply our | hearts • — | un- • -to | wisdom.

Prayer for restoration.

- 13 Turn thee again O Lord | at • the | last ||
 || and be | gra- • -cious | unto • thy | servants.
- 14 O satisfy us with thy mercy and | that • — | soon ||
 || so shall we rejoice and be glad all the | days • — | of • our | life.
- 15 Comfort us again now after the time that thou hast | pla- • -gued | us ||
 || and for the years wherein | we • have | suffered • ad- | -versity.
- 16 Shew thy | servants • thy | work ||
 || and their | chil- • -dren | thy • — | glory.
- 17 And the glorious Majesty of the Lord our God |

 || or | shew • forth | all • his | praise ?
- 3 Blessed are they that | alway • keep | judgement ||
 || and | do • — | right- • -eous- | -ness.
- 4 Remember me O Lord, according to the favour that thou bearest | unto • thy | people ||
 || O visit | me • with | thy • sal- | -vation ;
- 5 That I may see the felicity | of • thy | chosen ||
 || and rejoice in the gladness of thy people, and give | thanks • with | thine • in- | -heritance.
- The sins of the people in contrast with God's mercies in Egypt ;
- 6 We have sinned | with • our | fathers ||
 || we have done a- | -miss • and | dealt • — | wickedly.
- 7 Our fathers regarded not thy wonders in Egypt,
 neither kept they thy great goodness | in • re- |
 -membrance ||
 || but were disobedient at the sea, even | at • the |
 Red • — | sea.
- 8 Nevertheless, he helped them for his | Name's • — |
 sake ||
 || that he might make his | pow- • -er | to • be | known.
- 9 He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was | dri- • -ed |
 up ||
 || so he led them through the | deep • as |
 through • a | wilderness.
- 10 And he saved them from the advers- | -a • -ry's |
 hand ||
 || and delivered them from the | hand • — |
 of • the | enemy.
- 11 As for those that troubled them, the waters over- |
 -whelm- • -ed | them ||
 || there was not | one • of | them • — | left.
- 12 Then believed | they • his | words ||
 || and sang | praise • — | un- • -to | him.

in the Exodus;

- 13 But within a while they for- | -gat • his | works ||
 || and would | not • a- | -bide • his | counsel.
- 14 But lust came upon them | in • the | wilderness ||
 || and they tempted | God • — | in • the | desert.
- 15 And he gave them | their • de- | -sire ||
 || and sent leanness with- | -al • — | into • their | soul.
- 16 They angered Moses also | in • the | tents ||
 || and Aaron the | saint • — | of • the | Lord.
- 17 So the earth opened and | swallowed • up | Dathan ||
 || and covered the congre- | -ga • -tion | of • Ab- |
 -iram.
- 18 And the fire was kindled | in • their | company ||
 || the flame | burnt • up | the • un- | -godly.
- 19 They made a | calf • in | Horeb ||
 || and | worshipped • the | mol • -ten | image.
- 20 Thus they | turned • their | glory ||
 || into the similitude of a | calf • that | eat • -eth | hay.
- 21 And they forgot | God • their | Saviour ||
 || who had done so | great • — | things • in | Egypt ;
- 22 Wondrous works in the | land • of | Ham ||
 || and fearful things | by • the | Red • — | sea.
- 23 So he said he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him | in • the | gap ||
 || to turn away his wrathful indignation | lest • he | should • de- | -stroy them.
- 24 Yea they thought scorn of that | plea • -sant | land ||
 || and gave no | cre • -dence | unto • his | word ;
- 25 But murmured | in • their | tents ||
 || and hearkened not unto the | voice • — | of • the | Lord.
- 26 Then lift he up his | hand • a- | -gainst them ||
 || to over- | -throw • them | in • the | wilderness ;
- 27 To cast out their seed a- | -mong • the | nations ||
 || and to | scatter • them | in • the | lands.
- 28 They joined themselves unto | Ba • -al- | -peor ||
 || and ate the | of • -ferings | of • the | dead.
- 29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their | own • in- | -ventions ||
 || and the | plague • was | great • a- | -mong them.

- 30 Then stood up Phine- | -es • and | prayed ||
 || and | so • the | plague • — | ceased.
- 31 And that was counted unto | him • for | righteousness ||
 || among all posteri- | -ties • for | ev- • -er- | -more.
- 32 They angered him also at the | waters • of | strife ||
 || so that he punished | Mo- • -ses | for • their | sakes ;
- 33 Because they pro- | -voked • his | spirit ||
 || so that he spake unad- | -vised- • -ly | with • his | lips.

in Canaan.

- 34 Neither destroyed | they • the | heathen ||
 || as the | Lord • com- | -mand- • -ed | them ;
- 35 But were mingled a- | -mong • the | heathen ||
 || and | learn- • -ed | their • — | works.
- 36 Inasmuch that they worshipped their idols, which turned to their | own • de- | -cay ||
 || yea, they offered their sons and their |
 daugh- • -ters | un- • -to | devils ;
- 37 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and | of • their | daughters || || whom they offered unto the idols of Canaan, and the land | was • de- | -filed • with | blood.
- 38 Thus were they stained with their | own • — | works ||
 || and went a whoring | with • their | own • in- |
 -ventions.

The Divine chastisements.

- 39 Therefore was the wrath of the Lord kindled a- |
 -gainst • his | people ||
 || insomuch that he ab- | -horred • his | own • in- |
 -heritance.
- 40 And he gave them over into the hand | of • the |
 heathen ||
 || and they that hated them were | lords • — |
 o- • -ver | them.
- 41 Their enemies op- | -pres- • -sed | them ||
 || and | had • them | in • sub- | -jection.
- 42 Many a time did he de- | -li- • -ver | them ||
 || but they rebelled against him with their own inventions, and were brought | down • — |
 in • their | wickedness.
- 43 Nevertheless, when he saw | their • ad- | -versity ||
 || he | heard • — | their • com- | -plaint.

- 44 He thought upon his covenant and pitied them according unto the multitude | of • his | mercies ||
|| yea, he made all those that led them away |
captive • to | pi- • -ty | them.
- 45 Deliver us O Lord our God, and gather us from a- | -mong • the | heathen ||
|| that we may give thanks unto thy holy Name, and make our | boast • — | of • thy | praise.
- 46 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel from everlasting

|| and let all the | peo- • -ple | say • A- | -men.

PSALM 107. Confitemini Domino.

Let all give thanks,

O GIVE thanks unto the Lord for | he • is | gracious ||
|| and his | mercy • en- | -dureth • for | ever.

exiles and wanderers,

- 2 Let them give thanks whom the Lord | hath • re- |
-deemed ||
|| and delivered from the | hand • — | of • the | enemy;
- 3 And gathered them out of the lands, from the east and | from • the | west ||
|| from the | north • and | from • the | south.
- 4 They went astray in the wilderness | out of • the |
way ||
|| and | found • no | city • to | dwell in ;
- 5 Hungry | and • — | thirsty ||
|| their | soul • — | faint- • -ed | in them.
- 6 So they cried unto the Lord | in • their | trouble ||
|| and he delivered | them • from | their • di- | -stress.
- 7 He led them forth by the | right • — | way ||
|| that they might go to the | ci- • -ty | where • they | dwelt.

8 O that men would therefore praise the Lord |
 for • his | goodness ||
 || and declare the wonders that he doeth | for • the |
 children • of | men !

9 For he satisfieth the | emp- • -ty | soul ||
 || and filleth the | hun- • -gry | soul • with | goodness.

captives and prisoners,

10 Such as sit in darkness, and in the | shadow • of |

 most • — | Highest ;

12 He also brought down their | heart • through |

13 So when they cried unto the Lord | in • their |

15 O that men would therefore praise the Lord |

the sick unto death,

|| he delivered them | out • of | their • di- | -stress.

20 He sent his word and | heal- • -ed | them ||

- 21 O that men would therefore praise the Lord |

- 22 That they would offer unto him the sacrifice of | storm-tossed seafarers.

- 23 They that go down to the | sea • in | ships ||
 || and occupy their | business • in | great • — | waters;
- 24 These men see the works | of • the | Lord ||
 || and his | won- • -ders | in • the | deep.
- 25 For at his word the stormy | wind • a- | -riseth ||
 || which lifteth | up • the | waves • there- | -of.
- 26 They are carried up to the heaven, and down
 again | to • the | deep ||
 || their soul melteth away be- | -cause • — | of • the | trouble.
- 27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a |

 || and are | at • their | wits' • — | end.
- 28 So when they cry unto the Lord | in • their | trouble ||
 || he delivereth them | out • of | their • di- | -stress.
- 29 For he maketh the | storm • to | cease ||
 || so that the | waves • there- | -of • are | still.
- 30 Then are they glad, because they | are • at | rest ||
 || and so he bringeth them unto the haven |
 where • they | would • — | be.
- 31 O that men would therefore praise the Lord |
 for • his | goodness ||
 || and declare the wonders that he doeth | for • the |
 children • of | men!
- 32 That they would exalt him also in the congregation |
 of • the | people ||

 The Lord rules the changes of life.
- 33 Who turneth the floods | into • a | wilderness ||
 || and | dri- • -eth | up • the | water-springs.
- 34 A fruitful land | maketh • he | barren ||
 || for the wickedness of | them • that | dwell • there- |

- 35 Again, he maketh the wilderness a | stand- • -ing |

- 36 And there he | setteth • the | hungry ||
|| that they may | build them • a | city • to |

- 37 That they may sow their land and | plant • — |

|| to | yield • them | fruits • of | increase.
- 38 He blesseth them, so that they multi- | -ply • ex- |
-ceedingly ||
|| and suffereth not their | cat- • -tle | to • de- | -crease.
- 39 And again, when they are minished and |
brought • — | low ||
|| through oppression through | a • -ny | plague • or |
trouble ;
- 40 Though he suffer them to be evil in- |
-treated • through | tyrants ||
|| and let them wander out of the | way • — |

- 41 Yet helpeth he the poor | out • of | misery ||

- 2 And they have spoken against me with | false • — |

The curses of the ungodly.

- 5 Set thou an ungodly man to be ruler | o- • -ver |

- 12 Let his posterity | be • de- | -stroyed ||

- 13 Let the wickedness of his fathers be had in remembrance in the sight | of • the | Lord ||

 done • a- | -way.
- 14 Let them alway be be- | -fore • the | Lord ||

- 15 And that, because his mind was | not to • do |

 || but persecuted the poor helpless man, that he might slay him that was | vex- • -ed | at • the |

- 16 His delight was in cursing, and it shall happen |

- 19 Let it thus happen from the Lord | unto • mine |

- THY word is a lantern | unto • my | feet ||
 || and a | light • — | unto • my | paths.
- 106 I have sworn and am | stedfast- • -ly | purposed ||
 || to | keep • thy | right- • -eous | judgements.
- 107 I am troubled a- | -bove • — | measure ||
 || quicken me O Lord ac- | -cord- • -ing | to • thy |

- 109 My soul is alway | in • my | hand ||
 || yet do I | not • for- | -get • thy | law.
- 110 The ungodly have laid a | snare • for | me ||
 || but yet I swerved | not • from | thy • com- |
 -mandments.
- 111 Thy testimonies have I claimed as mine herit- |
 -age • for | ever ||
 || and why, they are the very | joy • — | of • my |
 heart.
- 112 I have applied my heart to fulfil thy | sta- • -tures |
 alway ||
 || even | un- • — | -to • the | end.

GLORIA.

Iniquos odio habui.

- I HATE them that imagine | e- • -vil | things ||
 || but thy | law • — | do • I | love.
 114 Thou art my de- | -fence • and | shield ||

 || yea, my delight shall be | ev- • -er | in • thy | statutes.
 118 Thou hast trodden down all them that depart |
 from • thy | statutes ||
 || for they i- | -ma- • -gine | but • de- | -ceit.
 119 Thou puttest away all the ungodly of the | earth • like | dross ||
 || there- | -fore • I | love • thy | testimonies.

 lov- • -ing | mercy ||
 || and | teach • — | me • thy | statutes.

- THY testimonies are | won- • -der- | -ful ||
 || therefore | doth • my | soul • — | keep them.
- 130 When thy word | go- • -eth | forth ||
 || it giveth light and under- | -stand- • -ing |
 unto • the | simple.
- 131 I opened my mouth and drew | in • my | breath ||
 || for my delight | was • in | thy • com- | -mandments.
- 132 O look thou upon me, and be merciful | un- • -to |
 me ||
 || as thou usest to do unto | those • that |

 || and so shall no wickedness have do- |
 -min- • -ion | o- • -ver | me.

 || are ex- | -ceed- • -ing | righteous • and | true.

- 140 Thy word is tried | to • the | uttermost ||
 || and thy | ser- • -vant | lov- • -eth | it.
- 141 I am small and of no | re- • -put- | -ation ||
 || yet do I not for- | -get • — | thy • com- |

- 151 Be thou nigh at | hand • O | Lord ||
 || for all | thy • com- | -mandments • are | true.
- 152 As concerning thy testimonies, I have | known • long |
 since ||
 || that thou hast | ground- • -ed | them • for | ever.

GLORIA.

Vide humilitatem.

- O CONSIDER mine adversity, and de- |
 -li- • -ver | me ||
 || for I do | not • for- | -get • thy | law.

 word.
 162 I am as glad | of • thy | word ||
 || as one that | find- • -eth | great • — | spoils.
 163 As for lies, I hate | and • ab- | -hor them ||
 || but thy | law • — | do • I | love.
 164 Seven times a day | do • I | praise thee ||
 || because | of • thy | right- • -eous | judgements.
 165 Great is the peace that they have who | love • thy |

 || and they are | not • of- | -fend- • -ed | at it.

- 166 Lord I have looked for thy | sav- • -ing | health ||

 tents • of | Kedar.
- 5 My soul hath long dwelt a- | -mong • — | them ||
 || that are | en- • -emies | un- • -to | peace.

- 4 For thither the tribes go up, even the tribes |
 of • the | Lord ||
 || to testify unto Israel, to give thanks unto the |

 until | he • have | mercy • up- | -on us.

- 2 They had swallowed | us • up | quick ||
 || when they were so wrathful- | -ly • dis- |
 -pleas- • -ed | at us.
- 3 Yea, the waters had | drown- • -ed | us ||
 || and the stream had | gone • — | over • our | soul.
- 4 The deep waters | of • the | proud ||
 || had gone | e- • -ven | over • our | soul.

Deliverance.

- 5 But praised | be • the | Lord ||
 || who hath not given us over for a | prey • — |

 || even so standeth the Lord round about his people, from this time | forth • for | ev- • -er- | -more.

 || for so he giveth | his • be- | -lov- • -ed | sleep.

Children His gift.

- 4 Lo children and the fruit | of • the | womb ||
 || are an heritage and gift that | com- • -eth |
 of • the | Lord.

- 5 Like as the arrows in the hand | of • the | giant ||
 || even so | are • the | young • — | children.
- 6 Happy is the man that hath his quiver | full • of |
 them ||
 || they shall not be ashamed when they speak

- 3 The plowers plowed up- | -on • my | back ||

PSALM 32. Beati, quorum.

The blessedness and condition of forgiveness.

- BLESSED is he whose unrighteousness |
 is • for- | -given ||
 || and whose | sin • — | is • — | covered.
- 2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord im- |
 -puteth • no | sin ||
 || and in whose | spirit • there | is • no | guile.
- 3 For while I | held • my | tongue ||
 || my bones consumed away | through • my |
 daily • com- | -plaining.
- 4 For thy hand is heavy upon me | day • and | night ||
 || and my moisture is | like • the | drought • in | summer.
- 5 I will acknowledge my sin | un- • -to | thee ||
 || and mine unrighteousness | have • I | not • — | hid.
- 6 I said I will confess my sins | unto • the | Lord ||
 || and so thou forgavest the | wicked- • -ness |
 of • my | sin.

Rest in the Lord.

- 7 For this shall every one that is godly make his prayer unto thee, in a time when thou |
 mayest • be | found ||
 || but in the great water-floods | they • shall |
 not • come | nigh him.
- 8 Thou art a place to hide me in, thou shalt preserve |
 me • from | trouble ||
 || thou shalt compass me about with | songs • — |
 of • de- | -liverance.
- 9 I will inform thee and teach thee in the way
 wherein | thou • shalt | go ||

- 10 Be ye not like to horse and mule, which have no |
 un • -der- | -standing ||
 || whose mouths must be held with bit and bridle |
 lest • they | fall • up- | -on thee.
- 11 Great plagues remain for | the • un- | -godly ||

PSALM 38. Domine, ne in furore.

Prayer in anguish.

- PUT me not to rebuke O Lord | in • thine |
 anger ||
 || neither chasten me | in • thy | heavy • dis- |
 -pleasure.
- 2 For thine arrows stick | fast • in | me ||
 || and thy | hand • — | presseth • me | sore.
- Affliction of body.
- 3 There is no health in my flesh because of |
 thy • dis- | -pleasure ||
 || neither is there any rest in my bones by | rea- • -son |
 of • my | sin.
- 4 For my wickednesses are gone | over • my | head ||
 || and are like a sore burden too | heavy • for | me • to | bear.
- 5 My wounds stink and | are • cor- | -rupt ||
 || through | — • — | my • — | foolishness.
- 6 I am brought into so great | trouble • and | misery ||
 || that I go mourning | all • the | day • — | long.
- 7 For my loins are filled with a | sore • dis- | -ease ||
 || and there is no whole | part • — | in • my | body.
- 8 I am feeble and | sore • — | smitten ||
 || I have roared for the very dis- | -quiet- • -ness |
 of • my | heart.
- 9 Lord, thou knowest all | my • de- | -sire ||
 || and my groaning | is • not | hid • from | thee.

- 10 My heart panteth, my strength hath | fail- • -ed |
me ||
|| and the sight of mine | eyes • is | gone • — |
from me.

Afflictions from men.

- 11 My lovers and my neighbours did stand looking up- |
-on • my | trouble ||
|| and my kinsmen | stood • a- | -far • — | off.
- 12 They also that sought after my life laid | snares • for |
me ||
|| and they that went about to do me evil talked
of wickedness, and imagined deceit | all • the |
day • — | long.
- 13 As for me, I was like a deaf | man • and | heard not ||
|| and as one that is dumb who | doth • not |
open • his | mouth.
- 14 I became even as a man that | hear- • -eth | not ||
|| and in whose | mouth • are | no • re- | -proofs.

God is the only refuge.

- 15 For in thee O Lord have I | put • my | trust ||
|| thou shalt answer for | me • O | Lord • my | God.
- 16 I have required that they, even mine enemies,
should not triumph | o- • -ver | me ||
|| for when my foot slipped, they re- | -joi- • -ced |
great- • -ly a- | -gainst me.
- 17 And I truly am set | in • the | plague ||
|| and my heaviness is | ev- • -er | in • my | sight.
- 18 For I will con- | -fess • my | wickedness ||
|| and be | sor- • -ry | for • my | sin.
- 19 But mine enemies live | and • are | mighty ||
|| and they that hate me wrongfully are | ma- • -ny |
in • — | number.
- 20 They also that reward evil for good | are • a- |
-gainst me ||
|| because I follow the | thing • that | good • — | is.
- 21 Forsake me not O | Lord • my | God ||
|| be not | thou • — | far • from | me.
- 22 Haste | thee • to | help me ||
|| O Lord | God • of | my • sal- | -vation.

PSALM 102. Domine, exaudi.

Prayer in deep distress.

- HEAR my | prayer • O | Lord ||

 thee.
- 2 Hide not thy face from me in the time | of • my |
 trouble ||
 || incline thine ear unto me when I call O |
 hear me • and | that • right | soon.
- 3 For my days are consumed a- | -way • like | smoke || fire-brand.

- 4 My heart is smitten down and | withered • like |

- 5 For the voice | of • my | groaning ||
 || my bones will scarce | cleave • — | to • my | flesh.
- 6 I am become like a pelican | in • the | wilderness ||
 || and like an owl | that • is | in • the | desert.
- 7 I have watched, and *am even as it | were • a | sparrow ||
 || that sitteth a- | -lone • up- | -on • the | house-top.
- 8 Mine enemies revile me | all the • day | long ||
 || and they that are mad upon me are | sworn • to- |
 -gether • a- | -gainst me.
- 9 For I have eaten ashes | as it • were | bread ||
 || and | mingled • my | drink • with | weeping ;
- 10 And that because of thine indig- | -nation • and |
 wrath ||
 || for thou hast taken me | up • and | cast • me | down.
- 11 My days are gone | like • a | shadow ||
 || and I am | with- • -ered | like • — | grass.

Trust in the unchanging mercy of God.

- 12 But thou O Lord shalt en- | -dure • for | ever ||
 || and thy remembrance through- | -out • all |
 gen- • -er- | -ations.

- 13 Thou shalt arise and have mercy up- | -on • — |
Sion ||
|| for it is time that thou have mercy upon her |
yea • the | time • is | come.
- 14 And why, thy servants think up- | -on • her |
stones ||
|| and it pitieth them to | see • her | in • the | dust.
- 15 The heathen shall fear thy | Name • O | Lord ||
|| and all the kings | of • the | earth • thy | Majesty ;
- 16 When the Lord shall | build • up | Sion ||
|| and when his | glo- • ry | shall • ap- | -pear ;
- 17 When he turneth him unto the prayer of the | poor • — | destitute ||
|| and de- | -spiseth • not | their • de- | -sire.
- 18 This shall be written for those that | come • — |
after ||
|| and the people which shall be | born • shall | praise • the | Lord.
- 19 For he hath looked down | from • his | sanctuary ||
|| out of the heaven did the | Lord • be- |
-hold • the | earth ;
- 20 That he might hear the mournings of such as are |
in • capt- | -ivity ||
|| and deliver the children ap- | -point- • -ed |
un- • -to | death ;
- 21 That they may declare the Name of the |
Lord • in | Sion ||
|| and his | wor- • -ship | at • Je- | -rusalem ;
- 22 When the people are | gathered • to- | -gether ||
|| and the kingdoms | also • to | serve • the | Lord.

The Lord abides for ever, and they that are His abide with Him.

- 23 He brought down my strength | in • my | journey ||
|| and | shor- • -tened | my • — | days.
- 24 But I said, O my God take me not away in the midst | of • mine | age ||
|| as for thy years, they endure through- | -out • all |
gen- • -er- | -ations.
- 25 Thou Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation | of • the | earth ||
|| and the heavens are the | work • of | thy • — | hands.

- 26 They shall perish, but thou | shalt • en- | -dure ||
 || they all shall wax | old • as | doth • a | garment ;
- 27 And as a vesture shalt thou change them, and they | shall • be | changed ||
 || but thou art the same and | thy • years |

PSALM 40. Expectans expectavi.

Thanksgiving for the untold mercies of God.

- I WAITED patiently | for • the | Lord ||
|| and he inclined unto | me • and | heard • my | calling.
- 2 He brought me also out of the horrible pit, out of the | mire • and | clay ||
|| and set my feet upon the rock and | order • -ed |
my • — | goings.
- 3 And he hath put a new song | in • my | mouth ||
|| even a thanks- | -giv • -ing | unto • our | God.
- 4 Many shall | see it • and | fear ||
|| and shall put their | trust • — | in • the | Lord.
- 5 Blessed is the man that hath set his hope | in • the |
Lord ||
|| and turned not unto the proud, and to such as |
go • a- | -bout • with | lies.

- 6 O Lord my God, great are the wondrous works which thou hast done, like as be also thy thoughts which | are • to | us-ward ||
 || and yet there is no man that ordereth | them • — |
 un- • -to | thee.
- 7 If I should declare them and | speak • of | them ||

The offering of service which God chooses.

- 8 Sacrifice and meat-offering thou | would- • -est |

 || but mine | ears • — | hast • thou | opened.
- 9 Burnt-offerings and sacrifice for sin hast thou |

 I should fulfil thy will | O • my | God ||

- 11 I have declared thy righteousness in the great |

 || lo I will not refrain my lips O | Lord • and | that • thou | knowest.
- 12 I have not hid thy righteousness with- | -in • my |

 thy • sal- | -vation.
- 2nd 13 I have not kept back thy loving | mercy • and |

Prayer in distress.

- 14 Withdraw not thou thy mercy from | me • O | Lord ||
 || let thy loving-kindness and thy truth | alway • pre- |

- 15 For innumerable troubles are come about me, my sins have taken such hold upon me that I am not able to | look • — | up ||
 || yea they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my | heart • hath | fail- • -ed | me.
- 16 O Lord, let it be thy pleasure to de- | -liv- • -er | me ||
 || make | haste • O | Lord • to | help me.

- 17 Let them be ashamed and confounded together, that seek after my soul | to • de- | -stroy it ||
 || let them be driven backward and put to re- |
 -buke • that | wish • me | evil.
- 18 Let them be desolate, and re- | -warded • with | shame ||
 || that say unto me, Fie up- | -on • thee | fie • up- |
 -on thee.
- 19 Let all those that seek thee be joyful and | glad • in |
 thee ||
 || and let such as love thy salvation say alway The |
 Lord • — | be • — | praised.
- 20 As for me I am | poor • and | needy ||
 || but the | Lord • — | ca- • -reth | for me.

PSALM 69. Salvum me fac.

A lamentation in sore distress,

SAVE | me • O | God |||| for the waters are come in | e- • -ven | unto • my | soul.2 I stick fast in the deep mire, where no | ground • — | is |||| I am come into deep waters, so that the | floods • run | o- • -ver | me.3 I am weary of crying my | throat • is | dry |||| my sight faileth me for waiting so | long • up- |
-on • my | God.4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs | of • my | head |||| they that are mine enemies and would de- |
-stroy • me | guiltless • are | mighty.5 I paid them the things that I | nev- • -er |
took |||| God thou knowest my simpleness, and my faults | are • not | hid • from | thee.6 Let not them that trust in thee O Lord God of hosts, be ashamed | for • my | cause |||| let not those that seek thee be confounded through me, O Lord | God • of | Is- • -ra- | -el.

7 And why? for thy sake have I | suffered • re- |
-proof |||| shame | — • hath | covered • my | face.8 I am become a stranger | unto • my | brethren ||

|| even an alien | unto • my | mo- • -ther's | children.

9 For the zeal of thine house hath even | eat- • -en | me |||| and the rebukes of them that rebuked thee are | fallen • up- | -on • — | me.10 I wept, and chastened my- | -self • with | fasting |||| and that was | turned • to | my • re- | -proof.11 I put on | sack- • -cloth | also ||

|| and they | jested • up- | -on • — | me.

12 They that sit in the gate | speak • a- | -gainst me ||

|| and the | drunkards • make | songs • up- | -on me.

Prayer in this extremity,

- 13 But Lord I make my prayer | un- • -to | thee ||
 || in | an • ac- | -cepta- • -ble | time.
- 14 Hear me O God in the multitude | of • thy | mercy ||
 || even in the | truth • of | thy • sal- | -vation.
- 15 Take me out of the mire | that • I | sink not ||

- 16 Let not the water-flood drown me, neither let the

- 17 Hear me O Lord, for thy loving- | -kindness • is |

- 18 And hide not thy face from thy servant, for I |

- 19 Draw nigh unto my | soul • and | save it ||
 || O deliver me be- | -cause • of | mine • — | enemies.
- 20 Thou hast known my reproof, my shame and | falling.

 || and ever | bow • thou | down • their | backs.
- 25 Pour out thine indig- | -nation • up- | -on them ||
 || and let thy wrathful dis- | -pleasure • take | hold • of | them.

- 26 Let their habit- | -ation • be | void ||

PSALM 88. Domine Deus.

The lament of one who finds no relief or light in affliction.

- O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and | night • be- | -fore thee ||
 || O let my prayer enter into thy presence, incline thine | ear • — | unto • my | calling.
- 2 For my soul is | full • of | trouble ||
 || and my life draweth | nigh • — | un- • -to | hell.

- 3 I am counted as one of them that go down |
 into • the | pit ||
 || and I have been even as a | man • that |
 hath • no | strength.
- 4 Free among the dead, like unto them that are
 wounded and lie | in • the | grave ||
 || who are out of remembrance, and are cut a- |
 -way • — | from • thy | hand.
- 5 Thou hast laid me in the | low- • -est | pit ||
 || in a place of | darkness • and | in • the | deep.
- 6 Thine indignation lieth | hard • up- | -on me ||
 || and thou hast vexed | me • with | all • thy | storms.
- 7 Thou hast put away mine acquaintance | far • from |
 me ||
 || and made me to | be • ab- | -hor- • -red | of them.
- 8 I am so | fast • in | prison ||
 || that I | can- • -not | get • — | forth.
- 9 My sight faileth for | ve- • -ry | trouble ||
 || Lord I have called daily upon thee, I have stretched forth my | hands • — | un- • -to | thee.
- 10 Dost thou shew wonders a- | -mong • the | dead ||
 || or shall the dead rise | up • a- | -gain • and | praise thee?
- 11 Shall thy loving-kindness be shewed | in • the | grave ||
 || or thy | faithful- • -ness | in • de- | -struction?
- 12 Shall thy wondrous works be known | in • the | dark ||
 || and thy righteousness in the land where | all • things | are • for- | -gotten?
- 13 Unto thee have I | cried • O | Lord ||
 || and early shall my | pray- • -er | come • be- |
 -fore thee.
- 14 Lord, why abhorrest | thou • my | soul ||
 || and hidest | thou • thy | face • — | from me?
- 15 I am in misery, and like unto him that is at the | point • to | die ||
 || even from my youth up thy terrors have
 I suffered | with • a | trou- • -bled | mind.
- 16 Thy wrathful displeasure goeth | o- • -ver | me ||
 || and the fear of | thee • — | hath • un- | -done me.
- 17 They came round about me | daily • like | water ||
 || and compassed me to- | -gether • on | ev- • -ery | side.
- 18 My lovers and friends hast thou put a- | -way • from |
 me ||
 || and hid mine ac- | -quaint- • -ance | out of • my |
 sight.

8 Desire of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for |

Evening Prayer

PSALM 104. Benedic, anima mea.

The majesty of God in nature,

PRAISE the Lord | O • my | soul ||
 || O Lord my God thou art become exceeding glorious, thou art clothed with | ma • -jes- |
 -ty • and | honour.

2 Thou deckest thyself with light as it were |
 with • a | garment ||
 || and spreadest out the | heav- • -ens | like • a | curtain.

3 Who layeth the beams of his chambers | in • the | waters ||
 || and maketh the clouds his chariot, and walketh upon the | wings • — | of • the | wind.

4 He maketh his | an- • -gels | spirits ||
 || and his minis- | -ters • a | fla- • -ming | fire.

His creative power in land and water.

5 He laid the foundations | of • the | earth ||
 || that it never should | move • at | a- • -ny | time.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep like as |
 with • a | garment ||
 || the waters | stand • — | in • the | hills.

7 At thy re- | -buke • they | flee ||
 || at the voice of thy | thunder • they | are • a- | -fraid.

8 They go up as high as the hills, and down to the | valleys • be- | -neath ||
 || even unto the place which thou | hast • ap- |
 -point- • -ed | for them.

9 Thou hast set them their bounds which they | shall • not | pass ||
 || neither turn a- | -gain • to | cover • the | earth.

10 He sendeth the springs | into • the | rivers ||
 || which | run • a- | -mong • the | hills.

His provision for living things.

11 All beasts of the field | drink • there- | -of ||
 || and the wild | ass- • -es | quench • their | thirst.

12 Beside them shall the fowls of the air have their | ha- • -bit- | -ation ||
 || and | sing • a- | -mong • the | branches.

- 13 He watereth the hills | from • a- | -bove ||
 || the earth is filled with the | fruit • — | of • thy | works.
- 14 He bringeth forth grass | for • the | cattle ||
 || and green herb | for • the | service • of | men ;
- 2nd
part 15 That he may bring food out of the earth, and wine that maketh glad the | heart • of | man ||
 || and oil to make him a cheerful countenance, and bread to | strength- • -en | man's • — | heart.
- 16 The trees of the Lord also are | full • of | sap ||
 || even the cedars of Liba- | -nus • which |
 he • hath | planted ;
- 17 Wherein the birds | make • their | nests ||
 || and the fir- trees are a | dwell- • -ling | for • the | stork.
- 18 The high hills are a refuge for the | wild • — | goats ||
 || and so are the stony | rocks • — | for • the | conies.

The ministry of day and night.

- 19 He appointed the moon for | cer- • -tain | seasons ||
 || and the sun | knoweth • his | go- • -ing | down.
- 20 Thou makest darkness that it | may • be | night ||
 || wherein all the beasts | of • the | forest • do | move.
- 21 The lions roaring | after • their | prey ||
 || do | seek • their | meat • from | God.
- 22 The sun ariseth, and they get them a- | -way • to- |
 -gether ||
 || and lay them | down • — | in • their | dens.
- 23 Man goeth forth to his work and | to • his | labour ||
 || un- | — • — | -til • the | evening.

His enduring and triumphant Majesty.

- 24 O Lord how manifold | are • thy | works ||
 || in wisdom hast thou made them all, the earth is | full • — | of • thy | riches.
- 25 So is the great and | wide • sea | also ||
 || wherein are things creeping innumerable, both | small • and | great • — | beasts.
- 26 There go the ships, and there is | that • Lev- |
 -iathan ||
 || whom thou hast made to | take • his | pastime • there- | -in.

- 27 These wait | all up- • -on | thee ||
 || that thou mayest give them | meat • in |
 due • — | season.
- 28 When thou givest it them they | ga- • -ther | it ||
 || and when thou openest thy hand | they • are | filled • with | good.
- 29 When thou hidest thy face | they • are | troubled ||
 || when thou takest away their breath they die, and are turned a- | -gain • — | to • their | dust.
- 30 When thou lettest thy breath go forth they |
 shall • be | made ||
 || and thou shalt renew the | face • — | of • the | earth.

Confession of His sovereignty.

- 31 The glorious Majesty of the Lord shall en- |
 -dure • for | ever ||
 || the Lord shall re- | -joice • — | in • his | works.
- 32 The earth shall tremble at the | look • of | him ||
 || if he do but touch the | hills • — | they • shall | smoke.
- 33 I will sing unto the Lord as | long as • I | live ||
 || I will praise my God | while • I | have • my | being.
- 34 And so shall my | words • — | please him ||
 || my joy shall | be • — | in • the | Lord.
- 35 As for sinners, they shall be consumed out of the earth, and the ungodly shall | come • to an | end ||
 || praise thou the Lord O my soul | praise • — |
 — • the | Lord. GLORIA.

 || and de- | -clare • — | thy • — | power.

5 As for me, I will be talking | of • thy | worship ||
 || thy glory thy | praise • and | won- • -drous |
 works;

6 So that men shall speak of the might of thy | mar- • -vellous | acts ||
 || and I will also | tell • — | of • thy | greatness.

9 The Lord is loving unto | ev- • -ery | man ||
 || and his mercy is | o- • -ver | all • his | works.

10 All thy works | praise • thee O | Lord ||
 || and thy saints give | thanks • — | un- • -to |
 thee.

11 They shew the glory | of • thy | kingdom ||
 || and | talk • — | of • thy | power;

12 That thy power, thy glory, and mightiness | of • thy | kingdom ||
 || might be | known • — | un- • -to | men.

13 Thy kingdom is an ever- | -last- • -ing | kingdom ||
 || and thy dominion en- | -dureth • through- |
